SUPREME COURT TO MAKE SENATE RULING

MINE CAVE-IN CAUSES TRAINS TO BE DIVERTED

Collapse Oct. 4 at Worthington, Ont., Followed by Another To-day

Slides End One of Oldest Nickel Operations in That District of Ontario

Sudbury, Ont., Oct. 19.—A second cave-in at the Mount Nickel Company's mine at Worthington early today has put the Canadian Pacific Railway division at this point temporarily out of operation. The east bank of the cavity sloughed for a distance of 100 feet, twenty feet in depth, but did not drag the roadbed into the cavity. However, the tracks are not considered safe for traffic as the ground has been undermined.

Trains for the next week will be routed from Sudbury over the Algoma Eastern Railway tracks as far as Turbine, where there is a cut-off to the Soo branch of the C.P.R. and the service will not be materially affected. This was the arrangement when the big cave-in occurred on the morning of October 4 at Worthington, about twenty-five miles west of here, sounding the death knell of one of the oldest nickel properties in the district.

Ontario Plane Fell To-day At St. Mary's River

Two Forestry Patrol Aviators, in Hospital, Are Not Expected to Recover

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Oct. 19.—Pilot Jeff Fitch and Assistant Pilot Allan S. Grant of the Ontario forestry patrol aviation service are in a hospital at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., unconscious and not expected to recover as the result of a crash of their plane on the United States side of the St. Mary's River here early this afternoon.

TARIFF BOARD HEARS DOOR FACTORY MEN

Higher Appraised Value Urged For U.S. Doors Imported Into Canada

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—British Columbia and Eastern Canadian door manufacturers joined forces before the Tariff Advisory Board here to-day when for the third time the Canadian Manufacturers' Association continued presentation of their application for additional tariff protection against doors imported from the United States.

At the outset of the sitting, Oliver Phillips of Vancouver, representing British Columbia door manufacturers, declared he was not asking for a higher duty than the present tariff of twenty-five per cent. on United States-made doors entering Canada. He urged that the tariff be fixed and fair price for their selling purpose in Canada.

Mr. Phillips asked that "an investigation be made of United States door plants by a competent cost accountant who would be able to submit to this board what that fair price should be."

A. L. Bennett, on behalf of the original signatories of the application, said: "We are asking no change in the tariff rate, but for some action that will result in a customs assessment on United States doors based on a price that is at least not less than the actual average cost of production of the United States with a reasonable profit added."

The hearing was continued this afternoon, those opposing the application being heard.

Costes Plane Flies To Buenos Ayres

Rio de Janeiro, Oct. 19.—Dieudonne Costes and Joseph Lebris, French aviators who crossed the South Atlantic by plane, hopped off here this morning at 3.27 for Buenos Ayres, 1,144 miles from here.

AUSTRIA IS SOON TO DRIVE TO THE RIGHT

Vienna, Oct. 19.—After centuries of use of the "left hand side" for traffic, Austria has decided to follow the example of North America and adopt the right hand side. The change will involve an expenditure of $2,100,000, since the Government will have to change thousands of signal boxes, switches, semaphores, lamp posts and switchmen's huts.

PRIVY COUNCIL TO MAKE RULING SOON ON PROBLEM OF RESOURCES OF ALBERTA

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—The Federal Government has decided to apply to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in London for leave to appeal on the question of Alberta's natural resources.

Transfer of the natural resources of Alberta from Federal to provincial control before the Supreme Court on reference heard some time ago, and the court gave judgment. That judgment the Federal Government seeks now to have taken to the Privy Council for a final ruling on the subject.

MacLean Sees Cities Recovering As Whole Of Province Prospers

Municipal Finances Being Put on Solid Basis, Premier Tells Union Delegates; Province's Business in Splendid Shape, He Shows; Delegates Accord Government Leader Rousing Reception

(By Staff Representative)
Nanaimo, Oct. 19.—Greeted with the singing of "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," Premier J. D. MacLean last night delivered an inspiring address to the delegates attending conventions of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities and the Good Roads League, when responding to a toast of the Province of British Columbia proposed by Mayor L. D. Taylor of Vancouver at a banquet tendered the delegates by Nanaimo City at the Malaspina Hotel.

The Premier declared "the financial position of the Province, like that of the municipalities, is gradually getting better." He was glad to note that the municipalities are living within their incomes, recalling that in 1920 those bodies were not well financially, much being due to arrears of taxes, which had been reduced to $3,900,000, much being due to tax sales. Sinking fund shortages of $5,800,000 in 1920 are now less than $2,000,000.

He showed that in 1926 land carries a smaller percentage of municipal charges than was collected from this source in 1920. He recalled that the boom of 1922 was the chief cause of later trouble. "We forgot that we could not get rich taking in one another's washing," he remarked.

A factor in bettering conditions was better management of public utilities, and the Premier believed that, on the whole, utilities are now self-supporting.

MUNICIPAL AID
Liquor profits, pari mutual tax and motor licenses have poured between $1,000,000 and $1,250,000 into municipal treasuries, this relieving land substantially.

The Premier congratulated the Union on the absence of political bias in its recommendations to the Government in recent years.

CO-OPERATION URGED
He told of representations he proposes to lay before the Federal Government to secure more aid for the provinces, which will be reflected in municipal revenues. Premier MacLean pointed out that progress would only follow consistent co-operation by all parts of the Dominion, and congratulated the Municipal Union on its work and the enthusiastic interest of the delegates.

TWO MEN WRONGLY HELD IN MOSCOW

London, Oct. 19.—The London Daily Express quotes Edward Charnock, former secretary of the British mission in Moscow, as denying that Kyril Provo and Vladimir Provo, two former Moscow millionaires, alleged to have supplied him with Red army and navy mobilization plans, ever associated with the mission.

"It is another of the long series of scandals which followed the withdrawal of the British mission," Charnock, who is now in London, declared. "We are naturally concerned by the arrests because they mean almost certain death of scores of innocents."

REEVE REID WILL HEAD B.C. UNION

Unanimously Elected to Second Term by Convention at Nanaimo To-day

Ald. Marchant Threatens Withdrawal of Victoria From Union

(By Staff Representative)
Nanaimo, Oct. 19.—Reeve T. Reid of Surrey was to-day re-elected unanimously for a second term as president of the Union of B.C. Municipalities. Alderman E. H. Bridgman of North Vancouver, the only other nominee, withdrew in his favor and was tendered unanimous election as first vice-president.

Mayor Love of Grand Forks was named second vice-president without contest. Secretary-treasurer A. Wells Gray was re-elected amid rounds of applause, and George E. Martin was reappointed solicitor. The executive committee will be Comptroller Pilkington, Vancouver; Reeve Cornett, South Vancouver; Reeve Poppy, Langley; Councillor Lockie, Esquimalt; Mayor F. Busby, Nanaimo; Reeve Clark, Trail; Alderman J. B. Clearhue, Victoria; Reeve Nelson, Nanaimo.

The 1928 convention of the union will be held in Trail, the convention accepting a warm invitation extended by Mayor Clark, Kamloops also made a bid for the convention.

The executive was instructed to discuss with the Government possibility of assumption by the Province of entire cost of hospital care.

HOLDS OUT THREAT
Withdrawal of Victoria from the union was threatened by Alderman William Marchant when the convention refused to reconsider its support of an amendment of the Public Libraries Act to give non-resident electors of municipal libraries. Alderman Marchant persisted in efforts to talk until angered shouts from the delegates rebuffed him.

Action in San Francisco on Bail For Crews of Two Vessels Ended

San Francisco, Oct. 19.—The Canadian-Mexican Shipping Company withdrew its suit in the federal court here to-day in which efforts were made to recover from the United States Government and Internal Revenue Collector John P. McLaughlin $105,000 in Liberty Bonds deposited as bail bonds for the crews of the rum-runners Coal Harbor and Quadra.

The bonds were deposited with the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland in April, 1925, for the release of the Quadra and Coal Harbor crews.

McLaughlin seized the bonds on the ground that they should cover income taxes due on illegal liquor transactions by the Consolidated Exporters of Vancouver, B.C., said to own the liquor vessels seized and brought to San Francisco. The Canadian-Mexican Company claimed the bonds belonged to it and that it was not the owner of the vessels.

LOWER WHEAT PRICES AT WINNIPEG TO-DAY

Winnipeg, Oct. 19.—Following yesterday's drastic decline, the wheat market here to-day pursued an erratic course, with early session buoyancy giving way to a belated wave of selling. Final quotations were 1/4 of a cent higher to 3/4 of a cent lower.

SPECIAL INCOME TAX FOR SCHOOLS GIVEN APPROVAL

Municipalities' Convention Thinks One Per Cent of Incomes Needed

"Public Will See Truth This is Only Another Tax," Says Alderman Marchant

(By Staff Representative)
Nanaimo, Oct. 19.—One per cent of all incomes should be collected by the Province for school financing as means of relieving land of the heavy charges in the opinion of the union of B.C. municipalities convention.

At this morning's session the policy of special income tax for schools was endorsed, after discussion of the effect such a change would have on public opinion, Mayor Wells Gray of Westminister pointed out that the proposal would be looked at through political glasses in the legislature, but he declared such a change should be popular with some owning workers.

Alderman Marchant of Victoria questioned whether any new tax has relieved taxation and objected to an additional income tax. He preferred submission of the proposal to the people in a plebiscite, bluntly stating: "They will see the truth that this is merely another tax."

Education is a provincial or Dominion matter and the most equitable solution of the burden would be assumption of the whole cost by the Province, Alderman Marchant declared.

TEACHERS' SALARIES
The convention considered the education department should pay at least double the present salary contribution to wards teachers' salaries.

"We are spending fifty-one cents of every dollar of our taxes in teaching children," said one speaker. "Our boys are square pegs in round holes, not fitted for the opportunities of this rich country."

CHANGING URGED TO HELP POULTRYMEN
In Vancouver Rail Commission Asked to Make Ruling on Feed Shipments

Vancouver, Oct. 19.—An application of the Vancouver Milling and Grain Company limited before the Railway Commission here to-day requested that the transit rate on grain products be granted on all ready mixed mashers regardless of there being a small percentage of meat scrap and other non-grain ingredients in the mash.

The company explained the inclusion of any amount of meat scrap immediately prevents a transport under the transit rate and imposes a higher one. The company is now shipping about 25,000 tons annually to Fraser Valley and Vancouver Island customers.

RAILMEN'S CASE
The railways contended British Columbia farmers were in a much more advantageous position than those of Ontario. Hens in this Province began laying earlier and laid longer, and egg production here was fully 100 per cent greater per bird than in the East, far more than offsetting any disadvantage of freight rates, they stated.

W. T. Dickson of Langford, V.I., S. T. Iveson of East Wellington, and R. W. Tull of Duncan all testified they were poultrymen of years of experience, owning large flocks and that the economic production of eggs demanded the inclusion of meat scrap in the mash. Home mixing was unsatisfactory from every standpoint they said. The inclusion of non-grain materials in limited quantities was essential.

Berre, France, Oct. 19.—The British seaplane squadron of four flying boats which left Plymouth Monday on a 20,000-mile Empire cruise which is scheduled to take a year, landed in the harbor here to-day shortly after noon. NELSON RESULT PLEASES MANSON

Expects Period of Political Peace Now; Tolmie Profligate in Promises

British Columbia should enjoy a period of political peace for a time, following the Government's victory in the Nelson by-election, the third test of public opinion this year, Attorney-General Manson said on his return here to-day after participating in the Nelson campaign.

"I am greatly pleased with the Government's victory, and more so because the traditions of Nelson have been conservative for the last twenty-five years," Mr. Manson said. "That fact makes the Liberal victory extremely significant. Nelson has been conservative for a generation with the exception of the election of Kenneth Campbell in a by-election in 1921, and the return of the late Premier Oliver in a by-election in 1924."

"As elsewhere in the Province, however, it was observable in Nelson that thinking people are more and more giving their endorsement to the Government on its splendid administrative and legislative record."

LABOR SUPPORT
"The unanimity of the support of labor for the Liberal candidate was gratifying, and of course was one of the most important factors in giving the victory to Mayor McDonald."

"Political peace should prevail for some considerable period in this Province now. I am sure it is the desire of the people generally that they should be permitted to go about their business undisturbed by political battles."

Nelson Election Count
Nelson, Oct. 19.—The official count of Monday's Nelson by-election, completed to-day, reduced the majority of Mayor J. A. McDonald, Liberal, over Dr. L. B. Borden, Conservative, by one from twenty-nine to twenty-eight. The vote stands: McDonald, 1,078; Borden, 1,050; rejected ballots, 24; spoiled ballots, 10.

The total valid vote is increased by three, to 2,128, the largest in Nelson's history.

Court Is To Decide If Women To Take Seats In The Senate

Government of Canada Asks Highest Judicial Body of Nation to Determine Whether Constitution Enables Women to Be Appointed Members of Second Chamber on Same Terms as Men

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—The Federal Government has decided to submit to the Supreme Court of Canada the question whether women are eligible to sit in the Senate.

For some time past women's organizations have been urging upon the Government that any necessary legislation should be passed to enable women to sit in the Senate, just as they can now sit in the House of Commons. But there has always been some doubt whether the British North America Act gives the necessary authority. The act authorizes the Government to appoint "qualified persons," but it is asked if woman are persons within the meaning of the act, or if the term "person" is limited to men.

Several young women have applied for passage, but none of them had that much money to spend for the adventure, Kingsford-Smith said. "It is purely a business proposal," the commander declared. "We furnish the plane. It is up to the passenger to furnish $15,000."

Warm Weather Speeds Threshing On the Prairies

Winnipeg, Oct. 19.—Indian Summer still holds sway on the prairies to-day with the mercury soaring well above 80 at a number of points. Threshing was in full swing at all points in the three prairie provinces, with prospects of most of the 1927 crop being garnered by the end of the week. Considerable headway also has been made with fall ploughing.

A midsummer heat wave, which has enveloped the prairies for the past three days, is destined to last for another day at least, says an announcement from the Dominion weather bureau.

CIGARETTE LIGHTER CAUSES BIG FIRE

Test by Young Man in Horn-dean, Manitoba Proves Costly

Plum Coulee, Man., Oct. 19.—A cigarette lighter that worked too well caused the destruction yesterday of a warehouse at Horn-dean, Manitoba, containing thousands of gallons of gasoline and lubricating oil.

A young man entered the warehouse and asked permission to fill his lighter. When he tested it to see if it would ignite, gasoline that had dripped on his hands caught fire. He threw the lighter on the oil-soaked floor and within a few minutes the structure was a roaring furnace.

VICTORIA WET BUT VANCOUVER WETTER

Unusually heavy rainfall has been experienced in Victoria during the last few days, suggesting that the future is trying to make up for the abnormally dry weather of the summer. According to the Gonsales Heigha instrument, from 8 o'clock Monday to 7:30 last evening, when it ceased, the rainfall measured .91 inches. In the same period Vancouver endured 1.78 inches. Practically twice as much, while the precipitation in Seattle about equalled that of Victoria. Rainfall so far this month has been .408 inches, or 1.36 inches above the average for October.

Edward Ramaldi assaulted Nicola Eremita and was fined $10 for the act. Ramaldi was charged as a result of an altercation in the provincial court-house following the hearing of a civil suit between him and Eremita. Eremita, Ramaldi alleged, told lies in the civil court. When the trial was concluded and judgment reserved, the two men left the court room, but in the corridor Ramaldi, who had been had struck Eremita across the face with his hat. He had not hurt him, he said, and he was sorry. It was not quite clear to the court whether Ramaldi meant that he was sorry he had not hurt him or sorry that he had lost his temper and struck the other man.

Eremita briefly told the circumstances when called.

C. L. Harrison asked him if there was any mark upon his face. Eremita felt his jaw, turned its unblemished surface towards the city prosecutor and said: "I don't want anybody to mark my face."

"That's enough," said Mr. Harrison. "Go and sit down."

Ramaldi, meanwhile, had commenced another explanation of the affair, but Magistrate Jay stopped him abruptly.

"Fined $10," he said quietly. And then raising his voice, added: "You had better stay away from that man."

COMPULSORY CAR INSURANCE BEFORE B.C. MUNICIPALITIES

(By Staff Representative)

Nanaimo, B.C., Oct. 19.—No action will be taken this year to interest the Government in compulsory health insurance by the Union of British Columbia Municipalities. The convention, which was held at the hotel, referred proposals to the executive for examination during the coming year. Health insurance had been proposed as a means of reducing hospital charges on the municipalities. Chairman Bridgman of the resolutions committee advised the convention that little prospect of success awaited action this year, when recommending the delay.

The convention favored taking the census at five-year intervals, and will ask the Provincial Government to approach Ottawa on this matter. This action was taken because many grants to municipalities are based on population figures, and many rapidly growing communities are being overlooked.

Compulsory automobile insurance was strongly supported. Alderman Woodside of Vancouver pointing out that all hospitals suffered losses from motor accident cases, uninsured-drivers being a menace to citizens and creating uncollectable charges on the municipalities.

AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE
"For the protection of the safe, careful driver who carries insurance, why should we permit these careless drivers to operate without insurance?" he asked.

Comptroller Pilkington gave startling figures of traffic accidents in Vancouver, less than half the hospital accounts being paid. Accidents in three years totaled 145, costing $47,000, he showed. While compulsory insurance in Massachusetts has proven highly successful in reducing accidents, this scheme is merely an extension of the principle behind workmen's compensation," he pointed out.

Compulsory insurance would result in elimination of careless drivers, as they would be unable to obtain protection. It was asserted, Alderman Holmes countering with the view that rates would advance as careless drivers cannot be refused the right to operate.

Other delegates believed sharp increases in premiums demanded from careless drivers would tend to develop caution. The convention adopted the principle and referred the matter to the municipalities for discussion, views to be filed by the councils before the Legislature sits, in order that the executive of the union make steps to obtain action.

STOCKS BREAK FAST DESPITE EASY MONEY; LOWER MARKETS SEEN

New York, Oct. 19.—In the face of the drop in call money rate from 4 to 3½ per cent, prices sagged rapidly on the New York Stock Exchange to-day, following a period of early strength.

Such influential shares as United States Steel, General Motors, General Electric, DuPont, Houston Oil, and others were conspicuous among the declines which ranged from $2 to $6 a share.

"Lower price particularly for a large number of medium priced and higher priced industrials which have scored excessive advances in the first three-quarters of this year will be welcomed by a large part of the banking fraternity, which makes no secret of the fact that they have disposed of large lines of stocks in the past month or two at lower prices than those which prevail at present," Whitney of the Wall Street Financial Bureau says to-day in commenting on the market situation.

The decline will also be welcome to those quarters where the opinion is held that the speculative situation will be more satisfactory when brokers' loans have been reduced to about three and a half billion. The public has not started to sell stocks and undoubtedly will follow its past procedure of not selling until it is forced to. It may be said that in calling for the downward turn at this time, I have been a little premature. If so, on withholding your own selling to a point where you must do it in competition with that forced by exhausted margins."

NANAIMO DINES CONVENTION GUESTS

City Council Entertains at Banquet at Maaispina Hotel

By Staff Representative
Nanaimo, Oct. 19.—Nanaimo city last night tendered a banquet at the Maaispina Hotel to the delegates attending the convention of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities, the Good Roads League and the Municipal Officers' Association. Mayor Bushby briefly referred to the death of the late Mark Bate, who served Nanaimo as mayor for sixteen years, and the passing of the city to his memory.

Alderman Woodside of Vancouver proposed the toast to the ladies in happy terms, with praise of social activities such as hospital organization. Mrs. F. L. Reynolds replied, and a collection realized $198.16 towards the Nanaimo General Hospital.

A toast proposed by Alderman Bridgman of North Vancouver in honor of the Saskatchewan Municipal Union was replied to by Mayor Gregory of North Battleford, president of that body, who remarked upon the similarity of effort in both provinces to thrust more burdens on the Provincial Government and draw more revenue for local purposes from the vast supplies of low grade grain to be marketed. Mayor Gregory stated that British Columbia and the prairie provinces have a big fight ahead to secure reduction of domestic freight rates on wheat from the present figure of 46 cents per hundredweight. He considered the new export scale of 20 cents very reasonable.

The Good Roads League toast was proposed by Alderman J. B. Clearburn of Victoria, who presented from Mayor Frenday an invitation to the delegates to visit Victoria. President J. J. Johnston of the league responded in terms which drew rounds of merriment.

The toast to the Municipal Officers' Association was replied to by President W. E. Wasson.

Reeve A. D. Paterson, M.P.P., proposed a toast to the Union of B.C. municipalities.

MUNICIPAL UNION WANTS MORE PAY FOR MEMBERSHIP

People Pay Elected Municipal Guides Too Little; Other Resolutions of Convention

By Staff Representative

Nanaimo, Oct. 19.—Mayors, reeves, aldermen and councillors are underpaid under present limitations of the Municipal Act, in the opinion of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities. Yesterday afternoon the convention unanimously supported the following scale of maximum payments to office holders:

In cities or municipalities above 20,000 population: Mayors or reeves, $4,000 annually; aldermen or councillors, $1,000 annually.

In cities or municipalities having less than 20,000 inhabitants: Mayors or reeves, $2,000 annually; aldermen or councillors, $500 annually.

An appeal for lower telephone rates before the Railway Commission, advanced by Saanich, was approved in principle and referred to the incoming executive, Chairman Bridgman pointing out that action will cost several thousand dollars.

The Government will be asked to renege the Public Utilities Act, and pending action to control the rates of public utility corporations under powers vested in the Provincial Water Board.

Proposals that the Province be asked to assume entire cost of primary highways and the municipalities take responsibility for secondary roads, were advanced by Spallumcheen and withdrawn after debate, when Chairman Bridgman asked delay for one year.

Municipal contribution towards pensions for school teachers, opposed by Esquimalt, was referred to the executive for consultation with the Teachers' Association.

Trail reported that general closure orders to prevent the recent infantile paralytic epidemic had been ignored by operators of a resort, and that conviction was doubtful under present legislation. The Union supported strengthening the Health Act to meet such cases.

Non-resident taxpayers of a municipality operating a library should be permitted use of the library, Oak Bay successfully urged. This met with opposition from Alderman Marchant of Victoria. Vancouver delegates supported the granting of the privilege, and Clark Blandy of Oak Bay, remarked: "This is the first time I have heard that we should submit our resolutions to the Victoria City Council."

Ald. Marchant protested lack of reply, and was refused privilege of reply. The Sheep Protection Act, 1926-7, was declared to inflict a hardship on municipalities by requiring creation of a fund of $1,000 from dog taxes. Many municipalities would require seven years collections to provide this fund, to be used to pay claims for damages to sheep, goats or fowls caused by dogs. The Union will apply for changes making the legislation permissive.

The convention supported the resolutions committee in refusing to approve of mayors or reeves being ex-officio members of school boards, suggested by Courtenay.

The proposal of Esquimalt that fire insurance ratings should not be changed without three months' notice, was endorsed.

The delegates laid over until next year a proposal from North Vancouver district that all dairy workers should submit to a blood test.

In agreement that the basis of distribution of motor licence fees and pari-mutuel tax should be the same as that for liquor profits, school attendance in each year, instead of the present basis of census figures, only revised each ten years, the union will ask the Government to make this change.

Councillors should be entitled to receive witness fees or conduct money in court proceedings, without impairing their eligibility to hold office, the convention considered.

The Union will ask the Legislature to require two days' notice of amendments to the Municipal Act.

Election of reeve or mayor by the members of the council was defeated after failing to achieve endorsement by the resolutions committee. Election of councillors for two-year terms, irrespective of division into wards, was approved.

The Union referred to the executive the protest of Port Coquitlam against having to pay $1 daily for keep of prisoners taken from railway trains and yards by railway police and brought before municipal authority.

To make easier the placing of trades licence holders on the voters' list, the convention favored earlier registration than the present limit of the month of October.

Direct control of police by the reeve or mayor and two councillors, in municipalities of less than 5,000, with abolition of police commissioners, was approved.

The Union supported Duncan in considering that no suit should be instituted against a municipality unless costs are first deposited to protect the municipality in case the suit is not sustained.

crops in their district was supported by the convention.

The council of Delta municipality brought the matter to the attention of the convention pointing out that the farmers have signed a five years' agreement under heavy penalties not to sell or lease their lands to Orientals and that this action has been endorsed by Surrey and Delta councils and a majority of the boards of trade of British Columbia.

FEE INCREASED

In recognition of loyal service the convention increased the fee paid G. M. Martin, solicitor to the union, from $600 to $700 yearly.

Much land in which the soldier settlement board had an interest being in arrears of taxes aggregating large sums uncollectable because the board has invoked tax exemption privileges of crown lands the union will appeal to Ottawa for reversal of this attitude and payment of arrears of taxes and future charges.

Cleans Inside, and Pores
Free from Any Taint

All the trick laxatives in the world can't tempt people who understand the properties of Cascarets.

A hundred different drugs will purge the bowels, but a little natural cascara purifies the system clear through. Cleanses even the pores of your skin. Renders perspiration as inoffensive as so much dew!

Your grandparents took "salts," and slowly washed away the mucous membrane with the waste! Mineral oils are better, but they leave the coating that your blood must then carry off through the system. But when you cascade the system, you get rid of all the poisons by normal muscular action of the bowels.

Don't get in the habit of taking medicine for constipation—or even for auto-intoxication. If you have the habit, stop it. A candy cascaret is a delightful form in which to take cascara: children love them and taste tempts most grown-ups to take "more." And what a comfort to know you are in that clean, wholesome condition that does away with any need of deodorants, even in warmest weather! Try a cascaret to-night! All druggists, 10c and 25c.

"I SEARCHED a long time for any real relief from my bad auto-intoxication. Strong purgatives just drove the poisons into my perspiration until I felt like avoiding people. I'm all serene now, just through occasional use of—

UNCERTAINTY OF WEST GONE, SAYS HOWARD FERGUSON

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 19.—"Never have I seen a greater spirit of optimism, East or West," said Hon. Howard Ferguson, Premier of Ontario, on his return to Winnipeg from a visit to Alberta and Saskatchewan over Canadian Pacific lines this morning.

The increase will be given to employees receiving less than $3,000 annual salary, and will range between $5 and $10 a month.

While in the vicinity of Calgary and Edmonton, Mr. Ferguson visited the farming districts in company with George Headley. Threshing was going on merrily, as much as 7,000,000 bushels a day, the grading being exceptionally good, despite the heavy rains.

"The great thing in the West to-day is this spirit of confidence," emphasized Mr. Ferguson, "and it is not entirely a matter of Western importance either. We in the East will profit by the money coming into the West, but more important to the country at large is the spirit of optimism. It affects the whole nation, steadies the financial affairs and gives heart to everyone."

With Premier Ferguson as his wife and Mrs. W. H. Price, wife of the Attorney-General of Ontario. They are spending the day at the Royal Alexandra Hotel, and leave to-night on the Toronto express for the East.

TELEPHONE COMPANY SHOWS BIG INCREASE

Between Forty and Fifty New Subscribers Obtained in Nanaimo This Month

Steady development in Up-Island centres is being shown by the British Columbia Telephone Company. According to an announcement made this morning by F. C. Paterson, district commercial superintendent at Victoria, between forty and fifty new telephones will be installed in the Nanaimo district this month.

During the past year the company's business has shown a rapid growth in the northern part of the Island, Mr. Paterson states. In Victoria also a considerable number of new telephones are being installed, and with the closing of the new directory, to be issued on December 1, a large number of new subscribers were received, Mr. Paterson said.

Practically all the damage suffered by the company through last Sunday's storm has been repaired. In the Admiral's Road district approximately 100 telephones were thrown out of commission through falling trees and poles. Rushing extra men onto the work the company soon resumed the regular service. In order to repair the damage they were forced to replace about 2,000 feet of the trunk

DOMINION MINISTERS IN THE WEST

NO FEWER THAN FOUR MEMBERS OF the Dominion Cabinet have visited British Columbia, all of them coming to Victoria, within the last few weeks. First came Hon. J. H. King, Minister of Health and Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, who was followed by Hon. Lucien Cannon, Solicitor-General, Hon. P. J. Veniot, Postmaster-General, and, finally, by Hon. J. C. Elliott, Minister of Public Works, who was here on Saturday to inspect the various undertakings at this port which come within the jurisdiction of his important Department.

The attention the Government at Ottawa is paying to British Columbia is evidence that it is desirous of making itself thoroughly familiar with all its problems and conditions. In Dr. King, of course, this community always has a friend at the capital who knows this Province intimately, and his support of British Columbia's cause can be relied upon at all times. It is gratifying that his colleagues should desire to be just as intimately acquainted with British Columbia.

To Hon. J. C. Elliott, as Minister of Public Works, Victoria is an important point because investments the Dominion Government has made here have been very large. The Department over which he presides is especially charged with the direction of port facilities, and the relation of port development on this coast to Canada's future must especially command the attention of the Minister and his colleagues in the Cabinet. They no doubt are impressed by the fact, emphasized by influential men of business on this side of the continent, that the principal background of commerce in the future will be on the Pacific Ocean.

As this development becomes more apparent, as the various utilities of our ports, whose operations are controlled by the Dominion Public Works Department, are brought into use, considerably more than they are at present, the contact between Mr. Elliott and this coast constantly will become closer. As for Victoria, Nature has favored her by placing her at the front door of the new and growing Oriental market, and through this port will flow the products of all Canada that are destined for that market.

GOOD LEGISLATION FOR HIM

ONE MAN IN BRITISH COLUMBIA YES-terday no doubt thought the Old Age Pension legislation excellent legislation and not, as The Colonist calls it, "half-baked legislation." He is Mr. W. H. Derby of Alberni, who got his cheque for twenty dollars from the Government Agent in that city, the first one issued.

Mr. A. W. Neill, M.P. for Comox-Alberni in the Dominion House, was present at the interesting little ceremony, naturally feeling proud that he had helped to give legislative effect to the Federal measure which enables British Columbia to provide for its old people, and in handing the cheque to Mr. Derby he said this:

Mr. Derby, I have much pleasure in handing you this cheque, made out to you from the Old Age Pension Department and signed by Parker Williams, a man who has done much good work as a commissioner of the Workmen's Compensation and Mothers' Pension Boards, and now in control of the Old Age Pension Department. You will see it is marked Claim No. 1 and Cheque No. 1. If you care to endorse it, I should be glad to give you twenty dollars in cash, as I should like to keep the original as a memento of this occasion. I hope you may be spared to receive many similar cheques in the years to come.

Mr. Derby came to British Columbia in 1871 and went to reside in Alberni in 1896. He was seventy-five this year. Twenty dollars may not be a great deal of money these days; but to a man or woman who has lived the allotted span of years, who is able to do very little for himself or herself, twenty dollars make all the difference between a struggle and moderate comfort.

Critics of the legislation, of course, would not have complained in the least if it had made provision for special interests to cash in on a higher tariff. But because it is designed to help those who are not able to help themselves, it is called "half-baked legislation."

A TRADITIONAL TORY SEAT

CONSERVATIVE NEWSPAPERS AND speakers are merely whistling to keep up their courage when they try to extract consolation from the small majority which gave Mayor McDonald the Nelson seat on Monday. He held for the Liberal Party what rightly may be described as a traditional Conservative riding.

When party lines were first drawn in British Columbia in 1903 Mr. John Houston won the seat for the Conservatives and held it until 1907, when Dr. G. A. B. Hall captured it for the Liberals in a three-cornered contest in which he polled only five more votes than his opponent; ninety-two being cast for a Socialist candidate—scarcely worth calling a Liberal victory from the point of view. In 1909, however, Mr. Harry Wright turned the seat back to the Conservative Party, to be succeeded in continued Conservative representation in 1912 by Mr. W. R. McLean. The latter held it until 1916, when Dr. Rose, despite the overwhelming defeat of his Party, won it and retained it until he resigned to make an unsuccessful bid for Federal honors in 1921. The by-election in the following year was won for the Liberals by Mr. Kenneth Campbell, who likewise was endorsed at the general election of 1924 in a three-cornered contest. On his defeat in Victoria, it will be remembered, Premier Oliver accepted Mr. Campbell's offer to make way for him in Nelson, and, in a straight fight with Mr. W. H. Houston, the Prime Minister was elected.

It will be noted, therefore, that, save for that period in which Dr. Hall represented the Liberal Party, Nelson, from 1903 up till 1921, was a Conservative stronghold. Consequently, and especially in view of the fact that the present Government has been in office for more than ten years, and that it is not the custom of governments to win by-elections after so long a term of power, the victory scored by Mayor McDonald on Monday was a striking one.

BARON MUNCHAUSEN AGAIN

GERMANY SURPRISED THE ALLIES more than once during the early days of the Great War. Her huge howitzers were the first shock and poison gas came next; but a revelation comes in a dispatch from Australia to the effect that when German raiders were scouring the Pacific, bomb-laden aeroplanes often were loosed from those ships.

During the course of a lecture delivered in Sydney, Alexander Stein, chief officer of the German freighter Main, now in port there, says he flew over the city with a bomb-laden aeroplane with the authority from his superiors to blow it up. He describes himself as a flying officer on the German raider, Wolf, and declares that he circled Sydney at an altitude of three thousand feet. The reason he gives for not dropping his load is that he had lived in the city before the war and hesitated to endanger the lives of many of his friends living there.

With due deference to Herr Stein, we shall suggest that the German raiders that roamed the Pacific for a short time after the outbreak of war certainly were not equipped with machinery for the catapulting of aeroplanes, or even fitted to carry flying machines on their decks. And it can be assumed that any German aviator finding himself above the city of Sydney at that stage of the war would not have been a victim of squeamishness.

Surely Herr Stein is spoofing people—who always will admit without the slightest hesitation that their harbor is the finest in the whole world.

THE ENDURING BRIDGE OF FRIENDSHIP
From The Portland Weekly Spectator

Agreat many persons have never heard of the Northwest Senior Golf Association, and those who are neither "seniors" nor golfers are quite likely to ask why they should be interested in hearing of it now. The Spectator believes there is a reason, and a rather important one, why they should, and at the same time opines that not all the "peace bridges" are built of steel and concrete, as is the one at Niagara Falls and the one dedicated by the Prince of Wales, Premier Baldwin, Vice-President Dawes, and other notables.

The Northwest Senior Golf Association is composed of 300 men over fifty-five years of age, and its membership is about evenly divided between citizens of the Province of British Columbia and the three Northwest states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho. These men are from every walk of life and are the leaders in their respective professions or vocations. The governor-general of the province is honorary president. Once a year the association holds a tournament in Victoria, and for four days the bankers, the manufacturers, the merchants, the loggers, the judges, the lawyers, the doctors of divinity and medicine, and the capitalists from the three states meet in friendly rivalry and intimate personal association their British Columbia brethren of the same age and the same interests.

Each year these friendships are renewed and cemented, and while the brand of golf played does not seriously threaten the supremacy of Bobby Jones, the competition is quite as keen as it is among the youngest of the juniors, the association championship match this year having gone twenty-five holes, instead of the scheduled eighteen before the American contestant finally won.

But the important thing is that this yearly renewal of friendly intimacy is building between the countries a Spiritual Bridge that will be a stronger, more effective, and more enduring bond than any material bridge can possibly be. A bridge of steel and concrete makes a safe and convenient crossing between countries, but it does not necessarily bind two peoples together. There were many such between France and Belgium and Germany in 1914, but a few sticks of dynamite destroyed them as effectively as though they had never been. A Spiritual Bridge such as the Senior Golfers' Association is building can not be easily destroyed.

JOTS FROM GEOGRAPHY

BROOKLYN BRIDGE, spanning the East River, at New York, is one of the most famous suspension bridges in the world. Built between the years 1870 and 1883, it has withstood the strain of traffic and weather to a remarkable degree. Its length, including approaches, is 5,990 feet. Its giant steel cables hold the floor of the bridge firmly in place, besides making one of the most graceful spans in existence.

Canadian Questions and Answers

CANADA'S NICKEL SUPPLY

Q—What is Canada's nickel supply?
A—Nickel is one of the world's few monopolies. This is largely due to the courage and foresight of a group of men who, by combining capital with the best technical skill, succeeded in developing the enormous nickel-copper deposits in the Sudbury district of Ontario and making nickel and its principal alloy, metal, available for every branch of industry at moderate prices. Ontario supplied eighty-nine per cent of the world's nickel in 1926. The 1926 production totaled $16,000,000.

GOLD DISCOVERY IN NEW GUINEA IS CAUSE OF A RUSH

Sydney, Australia (By Mail).—The discovery of reef gold, just when the new goldfield of Edie Creek in New Guinea was about to be abandoned, makes a story hard to cap in pure romance.

For months the miners had been losing hope and drifting away, some of them with moderate winnings and others scarcely able to pay expenses. High up the creeks the calls of the birds of paradise were beginning to be heard again in the silence that followed the fading of the "busy hum of men." Warden J. M. McLean, whose tactful handling of the turbulent factions last Christmas had averted bloodshed, had inspected the field and stated his opinion reefs should still exist. On the Upper Edie, where a water race was being made in the bank, an interesting lode was discovered early in the year.

It was not in May, however, that it was followed up. Next month a party found a rich lode on Mystery Creek, a tributary of the Merri. Just then a party of the Edie. Just then a party of the Merri came upon an interesting stone in the creek bed. Gold showed freely in it, and as the quartz was not much water-worn it was evident it had not been carried far. On being advised, the warden recommended a careful search on each side of the creek. For every shovelful he is heard, mmpj2

IN UPROOTED TREE
The jungle growth was particularly heavy. Moss and roots covered the earth to a depth of two feet or more, and the hills were deeply timbered. For several days the miners could only collect the floaters (loose surface stones) and examine them. Then one morning they found a lump of quartz carrying gold. Going up the hill, the men came on a vast tree which must have fallen years before. In its exposed roots were large pieces of quartz bearing gold. The old tree had held in its withering grasp a pointer to the riches of Edie Creek. Before long the cap of the reef was brought to light. The tests showed yields of twenty ounces to the ton, and the discovery is officially described as "most promising."

MANY CLAIMS PEGGED
"Day Dawn Discovery" has resulted in a frantic pegging out of leases over the surrounding country. Two aeroplane services to the coast are in operation, and so the food supply problem has been relieved but white miners and native carriers still have to make a weary eight days' trek from the coast through the dense New Guinea jungle.

Annual Food Bill of U.S. Estimated

Atlantic City, N.J., Oct. 19.—People of the United States spent the staggering sum of $22,000,000,000 a year for food, A. C. Managie of New York told the annual convention of the American Grocery Specialty Manufacturers' Association here yesterday.

"This includes every kind of food products consumed by the public as reported from the grocer, the butcher and the candy store," he said. "There are 61,563 places where candy is sold exclusively and 19,000 shops handling only bakery goods, and to get the maximum benefit of their newspaper and magazine advertising, specialty manufacturers should have their products on the shelves of all these establishments."

MEXICAN GENERAL ELUDES PURSUERS

Federal Leaders Do Not Know Whereabout of A.
Gomez, Rebel

Mexico City, Oct. 19.—The escape of General Arnulfo Gomez, revolutionary leader, from the federal soldiers, who are pursuing him, is admitted to be a possibility by those who are directing the search.

The whereabouts of Gomez, who was reported officially last week to have been discovered in the Huasteco region of Vera Cruz State, with only brigades as his followers, is unknown. General Alvarez, chief of the presidential staff, has told newspapermen: "Do you consider it possible Gomez may succeed in escaping?" General Alvarez was asked yesterday.

"Why, yes, it is possible," he replied with a shrug of his shoulders. "He may get to the sea coast or the oil fields, where he is supposed to have friends. He might even work his way northward to the border."
"All the Mexican Government wants to do is to get rid of Gomez," he continued. "It would solve our problem if he did succeed in escaping."
General Alvarez smiled as he added: "That does not mean we will not get him if he remains in the country long enough."

NO MILITARY PROBLEM

Of the situation in general General Alvarez said:
"The situation in fact is unchanged. There is no revolution and no military problem anywhere in the republic. There are a few bandit gangs here and there to which the Government attaches no importance. Reports of occasional conflicts of so-called rebel groups with federal soldiers in some states are purely local rows with small groups of malcontents and not worth statements from the press. The newspaper correspondents he would no longer meet them daily as he had done since the revolutionary attempt was started."
"There is no news, so why have any meetings with newspapermen?" he added. "If there should be any news, I will let you know."

CUT IN POLICE COSTS IS URGED

Regina, Oct. 19.—Elimination of either the Royal Canadian Mounted Police within Saskatchewan or the Saskatchewan Provincial Police—and they do not care much which—will be urged by representatives of Saskatchewan at the Provincial Premier's Conference, to be opened in Ottawa November 3.

Premier J. G. Gardiner, Hon. J. A. Cross, Attorney-General, and Hon. C. Davis, Minister of Municipal Affairs, will attend the conference. They will seek to have duplication of police activities in Saskatchewan eliminated for all time. They will submit that the Mounted Police should take over the duties of policing the province, the province to pay for such services, the provincial force in that event to be disbanded.

Three Hurt When Horses Ran Away

Nelson, Oct. 19.—W. J. Wilson and his two sons, George and Carl, are patients in the Kootenay Lake Hospital here, following a runaway accident at Beaver Meadows, twenty miles south of Nelson.

Mr. Wilson is paralyzed from the waist down and in a serious condition. Carl Wilson suffered a compound fracture of one ankle, and George has back injuries. The boys were thrown from the wagon under the horses' feet when the father was injured in attempting to save them.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up a stubborn cough. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Y.W.C.A. BOARD HAS APPOINTED NEW LOCAL SECRETARY

Miss Elizabeth Bradshaw, Here From 1912 to 1915, to Succeed Mrs. Ingram

Miss Elizabeth Bradshaw, who has had eighteen years' experience in Y.W.C.A. work, has been appointed the new general Y.W.C.A. secretary to succeed Mrs. Ingram and has taken over her duties at the new building.
For the last month the board and committees of the Y.W.C.A. have been very busy under the leadership of Mrs. Justine Gilbert, acting president, making arrangements for and moving into the new quarters at the corner of Blanshard and Courtney Streets. It is now a little more than a week since the last of the moving was done, and the final change of dwellings was made. Numerous changes and many adjustments had necessarily to be made for the running of the new institution.

WAS HERE BEFORE WAR

One of the first and most important steps was the appointment of a general secretary. Miss Bradshaw was chosen out of many applicants for two reasons, the first, her long experience in the work, and the second, her acquaintance with local conditions, having been associated with the local Y.W.C.A. from 1912 to 1915, coming here from similar work in Calgary. On leaving Victoria Miss Bradshaw went to Edmonton, where she remained until her health broke down a few years ago, when she came to Vancouver for a year's rest. She then intended to retire from "Y" work, but the insistent request of the Edmonton "Y" she again went back with the intention of staying with them for three months, a stay which developed into a year and seven months. On medical advice she has again returned to the coast, hence the local board was able to avail itself of her services.
During her regime, Edmonton built a very fine Y.W.C.A. building, which cost $100,000, and which includes one of the finest swimming pools and gymnasiums in Canada, and Miss Bradshaw's experience in the establishing and running of this big undertaking should prove of value to the Victoria institution.

OPENING PROGRAMME

A very active committee under the direction of Mrs. Percy Elliott, has been making all arrangements for the opening of the public of this new building, which will take place next Tuesday afternoon and evening, October 25. On that date the building will be open for the inspection of all when the general "at home" will be held by the board. The formal opening will take place at 3 o'clock, when several addresses will be given, the main address being that of Rev. W. G. Wilson, D.D., of the First United Church.

Pleads For Greater Encouragement of Canadian Writers

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—More sympathetic understanding should be given to new writers in Canada, declared Norman G. Guthrie, well-known poet and literary critic, during the luncheon of John Crichton, in addressing the Ottawa Women's Press Club last evening on "Recent Verse by Canadian Women." Guthrie gave the names of ten Canadian women writers of verse, the most promising of which was sixteen-year-old Dorothy Livesey of Toronto. Mr. Guthrie made a plea, not for praise of the writer, but for honest constructive criticism.
"Let us endeavor to understand what they are writing about and give encouragement, any evidence of true poetic instinct."

The speaker expressed the opinion that Canadian newspapers and magazines were too little given to featuring the works by Canadian authors and artists and given to exploiting foreign material.

YOUR BABY and MINE

by MERTLE MEYER ELDRED
Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

WAYS TO AVOID THESE COMMON PITFALLS

Mrs. G. M. S. writes:

I expect shortly to bring home a new baby from the hospital and would like to ask you a few questions.

"I have seen mothers simply cover their babies with talcum powder after bathing. Do you think this is good? Is talcum in the creases any better than vaseline to prevent chafing?"

"What should the room temperature be at night for the young baby? Will it necessitate having the windows closed? How soon can a baby be expected to sleep in the room the way he normally have it, who are fresh air fiends?"

"I have read so often of babies being smothered in bed. How should the bedding be arranged to prevent this? Also what is your opinion of letting babies wear rubber pants all day every day? I have been reading your wonderful column for months and have been saving the articles for future reference."

ANSWER

You are a far-sighted mother to clip the articles for future reference. So many mothers depend on their memories and these fall them in the hour of need. I hope the column is going to be still more useful to you.

Now for the questions. If the baby's skin is only rather than dry, talcum is better to use than more oil. It should be put on carefully, only in the creases and not shaken violently all over the baby, for the excess cakes and forms irritating rolls; and often the baby inhales these flying particles of powder and then wheezes and coughs and the parents think he is suffering from asthma. X-rays show up the powder particles. This does not mean that talcum is harmful. It only means that there are right and wrong ways of using it. If the skin is dry olive oil is a good choice of oil, and should be rubbed in the creases after the bath.

If the baby is normally healthy he can stand a temperature of sixty-five degrees in the sleeping room after he is six weeks old. If it goes lower than that, a hot water bottle at the bottom of the baby's basket and renew the water when he is nursed. Be sure it does not touch him and is well covered. Up until six weeks there can be fresh air in the room, but the temperature had better be about seventy.

Only babies who sleep with their mothers are ever smothered. There is no danger of smothering a baby who is put in his own little basket or box, as he should be. Use rubber pants only for those times when the baby is taken out and might ruin his clothes. They are not to be advised for continuous wear. Rubber is airtight; and one does not encase children in airtight garments; also it encourages a mother to be careless about changing diapers when necessary.

CLUB RECITAL IS DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

Miss Irene Bick, Violinist, and Mme. Socolofsky Charm Audience

Miss Irene Bick, a young violinist well known to Victoria audiences a few years ago, made a triumphant return to the local concert stage last evening when she appeared in the opening recital of the Ladies' Musical Club at the Empress Hotel.

In the interim, Miss Bick has been pursuing her studies with well-known teachers in Seattle and Vancouver after being forced to relinquish her playing owing to illness. In a programme which called forth all the resources of the artist and her instrument, she demonstrated last evening that she is a keen and able student with a big future before her. In her outstanding number, the Gregor Sonata Opus 45, the beauty of her interpretation, the smoothness of tone and the maturity of her technique won for her a well-merited ovation.

Her other numbers included "Kol Nidrei" (Max Bruch), which she played with a nice sense of the religious beauty of this fine old Hebrew air; the dreamy Melodie (Gluck) and Cecil Burrell's Snake Dance. Miss Eileen Dumbleton accompanied her throughout with sympathetic artistry.

Her singing of a negro spiritual was altogether delightful, and the soundness of her technique was apparent in such numbers as the dramatic Senta's balder of Wagner's "Tristan and Isolde," and "Angels Ever Bright and Fair" (Handel). The excellence of her diction was a marked feature of her singing in three languages, English, French and German. Mr. Ira Dilworth lent the singer able support at the piano.

At the Central Presbyterian Church, Vancouver, on October 15 at 5 p.m., Rev. W. Lester united in marriage Miss Catherine Frances Sands, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Sands of Cobble Hill, Vancouver Island, and Captain Neil MacLeod, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil MacLeod of Edinburgh, Scotland. After the ceremony a small reception was held at the Grosvenor Hotel.

Mrs. B. H. Walker, 2310 Wark Street, Vancouver, on October 15 at 5 p.m., returned yesterday from the Mainland after attending the silver wedding anniversary of her brother, Francis MacKenzie, ex-M.P.P. for Delta for eleven years. Mrs. MacKenzie returned for one session of the Government during the five years he spent in overseas service in France. He is now in the real estate and insurance business in White Rock, B.C., giving up the drug business since the war.

A surprise party was held on Thursday evening for Mr. R. T. Roberts of Victoria, who was the guest of honor at his home, 1337 Grant Street at whose home the party was held. The evening was spent in singing, playing and other amusements and many Welsh songs were sung. Mr. Roberts singing several songs, the delight of all present. Mrs. Mason was at the piano. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. R. T. Williams and Miss Helen Thomas. Those present were: Mr. R. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. D. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. D. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gurney, Mr. and Mrs. R. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. C. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Williams, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Lewis, Miss Helen Thomas and Iris M. Williams, Mr. R. S. Williams, Masters Clifford and Victor Thomas.

The Women's Art Association of Vancouver will also be represented by paintings from the brush of Mrs. G. A. Varley, painting master, who will be represented, especially by paintings from Duncan, Cowichan Lake and Crofton.

Arts and Crafts Society Show to be Representative of British Columbia

The response to a circular requesting artists and craftworkers throughout the Province to submit examples of their handwork for exhibition at the forthcoming Arts and Crafts Society exhibition has met with much favor—so much indeed that it has exceeded the number of exhibits which the society had anticipated.

A lady artist in Calgary requests space for her paintings; interior points, such as Vernon and Summerland will also be represented.

BALLOON ATROCITY MAKES SOLDIERS RISE IN REVOLT

Wah Hoo, China, Oct. 19.—Thousands of Chinese in the armies of General Chang Tso Lin have risen in revolt as a protest against the atrocious treatment which has been meted out to them by the Manchurian warlord. Their chief grievance is that instead of being allowed to fight they have been impressed into the service of rubber toy balloon makers, who are struggling to fill the largest balloon order ever placed in the Orient.

The order was placed by the Victoria Press Club for its ball in the Empress Hotel on October 28 when, according to cable advices received here, the natives of the Canadian city will disport themselves as part of an ancient custom. Pending the completion of the balloons needed to fill the order, General Chang has ordered all hostilities to cease and even the usual daily executions have been suspended so that executioners as well as soldiers may join in harvesting the raw balloon crop in balloon-growing districts.

ITALIAN VESSEL SINKS IN RIVER AFTER COLLISION

Vulcano Collides With Ss. Union in St. Lawrence and Later Sinks; Crew Saved

Rimouski, Quebec, Oct. 19.—The steamship Vulcano, owned by the Navigazione Generale Italiana of Genoa, sank in the St. Lawrence River last night at a point five miles north of Father Point, according to reports received from the signal service. All the crew were saved. The Vulcano's starboard bow was badly damaged in a collision earlier with the French steamer Union. The Vulcano attempted to proceed to Rimouski, but the pumps were unable to cope with the rush of water, and after proceeding some distance the captain decided to abandon the ship, which went down in eight fathoms of water.

The accident marked the first time in several years that a ship had been lost in the St. Lawrence.

Quebec, Oct. 19.—Two ships collided and one went aground during a dense fog in the St. Lawrence River, four miles below Father Point yesterday. The Italian steamer Vulcano was badly damaged. A report from the Italian ship's master stated that he was proceeding to Rimouski, where his ship would be brought to anchor. The steamship Union, a French vessel, was reported to be contributing her voyage to Quebec.

About the same time the Italian steamer Operetta grounded off Cook Point, but no information has been received regarding the extent of damage, if any, that has been sustained.

The wrecking tug Lord Strathcona left here late yesterday for the scene of the two accidents. The Vulcano, 5,322 gross tons, sailed from Montreal last Sunday with a cargo of grain for Gibraltar, where further orders were to be obtained.

The Ss. Operetta, 5,274 tons, was inbound to Montreal for grain. The steamship Union, 6,000 tons, was also bound to Montreal for grain.

Denies International Is Buying Bennett's Control of E. B. Eddy

New York, Oct. 19.—A. R. Graustein, president of the International Paper Company, announced to the Canadian Press that his company had purchased the Fibre Board Mill Company at Midland, Ontario. He denied published rumors that the International Paper Company was endeavoring to purchase the controlling interest in the E. B. Eddy Company of Hull, Quebec, reported to be held by Hon. R. B. Bennett, leader of the Conservative Party. He also denied that the International Company intended to purchase the Bennett holdings. Work has been started on a new mill at Midland, which will have a capacity of fifty tons of fibre board a day. Mr. Graustein said Henry J. Wisner, former manager of the Fibre Board Mill Company, will have charge of both the old and new mills.

Island Reduction Plants To Use Herring Following Close of Pilchard Season

Ottawa Lifts Embargo on Utilization of Food Fish for Non-food Purposes; Barkley Sound Excluded From New Regulation; New Plan Will Increase Output of Oil and Meal Plants

Herring fisheries on the West Coast of Vancouver Island have been thrown open for non-food purposes until the end of the year, thus increasing the season of reduction plants and making possible an increased output of oil and meal.

Announcement that the federal Department of Marine and Fisheries had decided to open the herring banks again this year until the end of December for reduction purposes was telegraphed here from Ottawa this morning and came as a great surprise. Provincial fishery authorities had expected the herring banks would be protected this year except for food uses. Instead, fish reduction plants on the West Coast of the Island will be permitted to manufacture herring into oil and meal.

Barkley Sound, however, is excluded from the order entirely. At other points reduction plants will make use of the herring after the run of pilchards has concluded in a few days. From now on, the herring will be made into oil and meal.

Orders announced from Ottawa today show that the federal authorities are re-investigating a policy started for the first time last year when herring were opened for fishing for non-food purposes. This was done to assist reduction plants, which complained of unsatisfactory conditions at some points.

FEAR DEPLETION
The policy of the Provincial Government has always been opposed to the use of herring for non-food purposes on conservation grounds. The use of pilchards for reduction purposes is not regarded here as threatening such serious consequences as the use of herring. Pilchards, it is explained, spawn at sea, before coming to the island coast, and the propagation of future runs is thus assured before the fish reach the fishermen's nets. Herring, on the other hand, spawn on the beach near shore and consequently are attacked by fishermen before they can propagate. Intensive fishing thus is likely to deplete the runs, and the use of herring for reduction purposes is regarded as a temporary measure and its repetition was not expected.

The Provincial Fisheries Department has always held that while there is no immediate food market for all the herring that could be caught on this coast, this market will be available ultimately. Meanwhile, to use the fish in large quantities for non-food purposes is regarded as dangerous. The opening of the herring banks last year was regarded here purely as a temporary measure and its repetition was not expected.

Shidzuoka Maru Will Arrive Here Early Saturday

Inbound from the Far East, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha vessel, Shidzuoka Maru, Capt. S. Takeda, will arrive at William Head quarantine station at 1 a.m. Saturday, according to word received by A. H. Hebb, local agent, today.

The Shidzuoka has forty-two tons of general cargo for discharge here, in addition to twenty-nine bales of silk. There are ten first class passengers aboard for Seattle and eight third for Seattle and one third for Victoria.

Mail for discharge here totals sixty-four bags, including nine airmail.

RESTORER FINDS CABLE BREAK AND COMPLETES REPAIRS

Advice received in the city by Lincoln C. Smith of Ship Chandlers Limited, indicate the cableship Restorer has found the break in the Pacific cable near the coast of British Columbia, and having finished repairs, is now on her return trip. Mr. Smith was advised to see that mail for members of the crew of the Restorer is held here until her return instead of being forwarded. This means the vessel will probably be back in port within a short time.

BOND POSTED FOR SCHOONER NOBLE

F. W. Davey, collector of national revenue here yesterday received instructions to release the auxiliary schooner Noble seized several weeks ago for being in Canadian waters with a cargo of in-bond liquor aboard.

The owners of the vessel have posted bond with the Customs Department in Vancouver for an amount equal to the appraised value of the ship, pending the decision of the department on the case.

The Noble was seized by the C.G.S. Malaspina on September 9, and was brought into Victoria. Her cargo of liquor is held in bond here.

On her latest trip, the Noble cleared from Vancouver for an up-coast port, but was later discovered off the California coast, where she came under the surveillance of the United States coast guard vessels. She was escorted by one of these ships to the Canadian boundary, where the Malaspina picked up her trail.

Four Men Rescued From Raging Seas When Barge Sinks

New York, Oct. 19.—The rescue of four men from a sea, whipped high by a howling northeast gale, that had smashed their barge to pieces off Ocean City, Maryland, was described today in a wireless dispatch to the Associated Press from the coastguard cutter Grampus. Helplessly adrift for thirteen hours, the barge Old Dominion of the Neptune Line, founded at 9 o'clock last night forcing its crew to leap overboard and fight against the surf until they were picked up by a boat from the Grampus. The barge went down after the Grampus had stood by for hours, and high winds in a vain effort to reach the craft with a line. Lines fell short as the heavy seas kept both vessels lurching constantly. The barge was pounded to pieces on Fenwick Shoals.

CANADA BUILDING GAINS $22,000,000 OVER 1926 FIGURES

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—The value of building permits issued in sixty-three cities in Canada during September stood at $14,021,212, a decline of $15,241,076 or 51.46, as compared with the exceptionally large total of $29,551,888 reported in August. However, the 14,000,000 figure was an increase of $3,262,709 or 30.4 per cent over September, 1926.

The high aggregate in August of this year was due to the authorization of several large undertakings in Montreal. The cumulative total for the first nine months this year exceeds by $22,000,000 that for the same period in 1926 which was the previous high record since the figures started in 1920.

In the western cities, Winnipeg increased by over $100,000 from a $624,000 in August to $760,000 in September, but in Saskatchewan all three cities reporting, Moose Jaw, Saskatoon and Regina registered decreases. All the Alberta cities similarly dropped, while the comparative figures for British Columbia show in six cities reporting a decline of approximately $10,000.

Funeral of Late Mrs. H. Anderson Set For Friday

The funeral of the late Mrs. Norma Anderson, wife of Henry Anderson of Bamerton, who passed away suddenly on Monday evening will take place from Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel on Friday afternoon at 1.45 o'clock, proceeding to Christ Church Cathedral, where service will be conducted by Very Rev. C. S. Quantin, Dean of Columbia. Interment will be made in Ross Bay Cemetery.

Mrs. Anderson's tragic death, which followed upon shock caused by a narrowly averted collision between her husband's car and another's while journeying into town to attend the Rotary Club's social gathering on Monday evening, has occasioned widespread sympathy among a wide circle of friends, both at Bamerton where Mr. Anderson is works manager of the B.C. Cement Company, and in Victoria, where both are highly esteemed. Mr. Henry Anderson is an honorary member of the Rotary Club, and the members learned with deepest regret of his bereavement which was made more sad by the distressing circumstances.

CANADA SHOWING BRIGHT EYES NOW, J. J. SEITZ FINDS

Conditions Never so Uniformly Good, He Declares, After Inspection Tour

"The next ten years in this country will be wonderful."
J. J. Seitz, president of the Underwood Typewriter Company, and one of the hard-headed business veterans of this continent, arrived in Victoria to-day after an inspection trip across Canada, and gave voice to his delight at business conditions in the foregoing assertion, when he reached the Empress Hotel.

"I would not be telling the truth if I did not say that in my thirty years of business I have not found conditions in Canada, from one end to the other, so uniformly good and settled as they are to-day," Mr. Seitz went on. "We have twenty-one branches across Canada, and at the present time there is not one lame duck among them. In former years, some have been up while others have been down. But this year, they are all good."

"I noticed all through the West on this trip that when you meet your friends they all have a bright eye and a confidence in the country that sometimes before had been lacking."

PROUD OF VICTORIA GIRL
Mr. Seitz said that he wanted to congratulate Victoria for the triumph of Miss Evelyn Neate, a local girl, who gained fourth place in the world typewriting speed contest in New York Monday night.

"I don't know whether the people of Victoria appreciate what her achievement means," Mr. Seitz went on. "This little girl left Victoria a short time ago and there in New York, facing fifty contestants, the fastest typewriter operators from everywhere, she won fourth place. Victoria should be very proud of her."

Another Canadian girl from Brockville did well in New York by winning third place.

Mr. Seitz said that the contestants were all well looked after, his own company having undertaken to see them through and pay all their expenses.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES MAKE SUGGESTIONS

B.C. Boards Pass Resolutions on Parental Schools and Other Subjects

Harrison Hot Springs, Oct. 19.—Endorsement was given by the British Columbia School Trustees' Association, in annual convention here this morning, to the recommendation of the Vancouver School Board for the establishment of parental schools where deemed necessary by the Department of Education.

Several urged the necessity of such schools for wayward children, although Trustee H. Stanley of Burnaby, suggested everyone seemed willing to relieve the home of its responsibility. He thought perhaps it would be more fitting to punish delinquent parents.

It was stated there were about fifteen children in the Vancouver schools who should be trained in a parental school, where twenty-four-hour supervision would be given.

Another motion from Vancouver seeking authority from the department to exclude imbecile children from the schools, who would then be placed in a Government institution, was also endorsed.

HIGH SCHOOL ENTRANCE

Several resolutions were passed regarding examinations as follows:

"That the provision of recommendation of pupils for admission to high school be extended to the principals in charge of entrance classes in all provincial schools."

"That the department arrange through its inspectors that pupils in assisted schools be permitted to write the entrance examination in their own schools, thereby avoiding the expense to parents of sending children to the larger centres and writing their examinations amidst strange surroundings."

"That the convention request the department to adopt a system by which credit of five per cent of maximum of marks allowed for entrance examination be allowed to pupils who have made high averages throughout the year."

TEXTBOOK RESOLUTION

The question of textbooks caused the usual lengthy debate. The recommendation of the convention to the department on this subject was: "Inasmuch as the department does not care to print textbooks, we are of the opinion that, in order to protect the public, the department should be requested to instruct publishers to mark the selling price on the books for use in both the public and high schools."

The delegates went on record as suggesting the department devise some method by which rural school districts should receive greater financial assistance. The convention again drew the attention of the department to the recommendations of the school survey contained in chapter seventeen of the report covering taxation.

Amateur Union Busy Quizzing Ball Team On "Irregularities"

Investigating Playing of 'Pro' By Old-timers Against Sons of Canada

Players Appearing Under Assumed Names May be on Carpet

More smoke has been sighted on the horizon by the local branch of the Amateur Athletic Union and an investigation has been commenced to see just what has been going on.

The amateur bosses met last night for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the annual meeting of the B.C.A.A.U. in Vancouver and before they transacted this particular phase of the business they became involved in a discussion relative to certain alleged irregularities which got by during the amateur baseball season.

The amateur union officials have their index fingers beckoning at the Sons of Canada, champions of the Victoria Amateur Baseball League. They now seek an explanation from the Sons and on the answer depends the judgment.

THE TWO CHARGES
It is reported that the Sons of Canada committed two offences, one of playing against a professional, without permission, in an exhibition game and the other of taking two unregistered players to Vancouver to play for them in the play-off for the British Columbia championship.

After having won the local championship the Sons decided to play a game against the Old-Timers, at which a "gate" was charged. The Old-Timers were anxious to play a former well-known amateur baseball player, who now is classed as a professional. The amateur bosses were asked for permission to allow the "pro" to play but this was refused and in defiance of the ruling the Sons and Old-Timers staged their game. The professional player under an assumed name "Brown."

Whether or not any members of the Amateur Union attended the game in question is not known but since then the bosses have been asked by outsiders as to "what are you going to do with this case?" The amateur bosses have in turn asked the Victoria Amateur Baseball League for information on the case. From what can be learned the Baseball League will have little to say as they have nothing to do with staging the game.

AN OLD OLD STORY
This mingling of amateurs and "pros" is an old story and Victoria has had considerable trouble over the matter in the past.

The first game of the season was played between the ball team and a team of players in a freak exhibition. The first game of the season was played between the ball team and a team of players in a freak exhibition. The first game of the season was played between the ball team and a team of players in a freak exhibition.

GIRLS DRAW FIRE
Against a number of girls who formed a hockey team thought they would get some fun out of a match with a Vancouver team and arrangements were made to play an exhibition during the intervals at one of the games.

The girls were warned by the Union not to participate in the exhibition, but they insisted and in the end drew suspension.

THE OTHER CHARGE

The second charge against the Sons of Canada is that playing two unregistered players under assumed names against Burnaby in the play-offs for the B.C. amateur baseball championship. The first game of the series was played in Vancouver and it is alleged that two players, members of another local team, played in the Sons' uniform under other names. In the second game here the players in question did not play.

Just what jurisdiction the Amateur Union has in the matter of this kind is not clear. If the Sons committed the breach it seems a matter for the B.C.A.B.U. to handle and, if they are willing to let it pass, then the Union is staid that remains is one against the management of the Sons team for resorting to what might be termed an "objectionable practice."

PETTY ADVANTAGES
The Amateur Union officials feel that the amateurs should have a better regard for the rules which are in force in Canada. They also feel that breaches are committed for the sole purpose of trying to gain "some petty advantages."

The Amateur Union will hold another meeting as soon as answers to the letters, which they have sent out, are received.

The delegates appointed at the meeting last night to attend the annual meeting of the B.C.A.A.U. were Percy Watson and Arthur Mann. The cases of several prominent athletes, including Lloyd McIntyre, formerly of the Edmonton professional hockey club, were considered and were passed on to the Dominion body, with recommendation for favorable action.

Slated For Job

TRIS SPEAKER

New York, Oct. 19.—Reports that Tris Speaker will succeed Dave Bancroft as manager of the Boston Braves persisted yesterday in spite of lack of official confirmation. Emory E. Fuchs, president of the Boston club, left yesterday for Boston without making any announcement. It is understood, however, that Speaker was one of the men Fuchs had under consideration, although Clark Griffith, president of the Washington Senators, with whom Speaker played last season, denied the outfielder had been released or that any deal for his services was underway.

McLarnin Boomed For Tilt With Sam Mandell

Vancouver Boxer's Win Over Kaplan Places Him in Front of Contenders

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Jimmy McLarnin's flying fists beat a peremptory challenge to Sammy Mandell, the lightweight champion, when they knocked out Louis (Kid) Kaplan, former featherweight champion, in the eighth round last night.

Coming out of the West behind a blaze of advance notices which Chicago flying fists beat a peremptory challenge to Sammy Mandell, the lightweight champion, when they knocked out Louis (Kid) Kaplan, former featherweight champion, in the eighth round last night.

DOWN TWICE AT START
Six thousand fight fans seemed satisfied that it was the greatest fight Chicago has seen since boxing was recognized by the legislature. Kaplan knocked McLarnin down once in the first round and again in the second, only to have the far westerner come back with a power that would not be stopped.

McLarnin dropped Kaplan in the fourth for a three-count. In the fifth he repeated, only Kaplan stayed down for a few moments. In the eighth another solid right crumpled Kaplan, but he staggered up at nine. A right cross to the jaw caught him and that time he was counted out.

TO MEET MANDELL

The conquest has made McLarnin the most probable choice of promoter Jim Mullen for the fight in which Mandell has agreed to defend his title here November 15.

Rolando Saguro, the Cuban light heavyweight, scored a technical knockout over Earl Blue of Fargo, N.D., in the third round of another bout scheduled to go ten rounds. It was his second victory within two weeks. Art Wiegand of Buffalo was his first victim.

Saguro, a terrific puncher, had Blue helpless and reeling in the second round and was on the verge of finishing him in the third when a towel came from Blue's corner.

FOULED REPEATEDLY

Blue fouled the Cuban southpaw a half dozen times. The bout was halted for 15 seconds in the second round after Blue sunk a low punch to the groin. He was guilty of fouling repeatedly thereafter.

Saguro weighed 170½ and Blue scaled 174 pounds.

Archie Bell, the Brooklyn bantamweight challenger, won from Kid Lennox of Mexico City, in the fifth round on a technical knockout. Bell weighed 119, Lennox 117½ pounds.

Sammy McLarnin, 153-pounder, outscored Joe O'Malley of Chicago in the opening six-round bout.

The match drew about 6,000 and the receipts were around $18,000.

Canadian Boy Stops His Man in a Hurry
Portland, Ore., Oct. 19.—Benny Peiz, Portland featherweight, won a ten-round decision over Sailor Willie Gordon, Seattle, in the main event at the Armory here last night. The decision was unpopular with many ringsters, several of whom credited Gordon with eight rounds.

In the semi-windup Angus Snyder, Canadian heavyweight, won a technical knockout in the second round of his scheduled six-round bout with Ted Frayne of Seattle.

In the other six-round event, Paddy O'Garty of New York won a decision over Teddy Fox, Portland featherweight.

Pittsburgh May Trade Cuyler to Reds

Pirates Would Get Critz and Pipp for Outfielders, Rumor Says

WONDERFUL PLAYER

It won't be long now before the Fall gossip about big league trades gets into full swing. That is an annual custom as soon as the world series is over.

This Fall the player most talked about as trading material is "Kiki" Cuyler, the star in-bad outfielder of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The drastic action of Manager Bush and Owner Dreyfus in keeping Cuyler on the bench, while waging one of the toughest battles in the history of the National League to win a pennant and all during the past world series, makes it seem a certainty that Cuyler is doomed to go elsewhere for 1928.

Unless both Manager Bush and Player Cuyler are willing to let bygones be bygones, unless Cuyler is willing to admit publicly that he was in error, thereby offering a reason for his continued benching, it hardly seems possible that he will fit into the Pirates line-up for next year.

Cuyler is a great ball player. With him in the outfield behind the Wanderer boys, Pittsburgh would have one of the greatest trios of gardeners in baseball, perhaps the best since the days of Lewis, Speaker and Hooper of the Boston Red Sox. In addition, so valuable a fielder as Barnhart would be on the bench ready for any emergency.

"Kiki" is excellent trading material. Any club in the National League would be delighted to make a deal for him. However, Pittsburgh will insist on something worthwhile in return and only a few clubs can offer such a package.

It is known that a deal with the Cincinnati Reds is on the fire and Cuyler will go to that club if Manager Bush can get the players he desires in the deal.

Realizing that the first and second base side of his infield is rather weak,

Carter Has a New Scalp On Belt As Result of Knockout

Washington, D.C., Oct. 19.—Having formally ended his famous pitching career in big league baseball, Walter Johnson yesterday sought seclusion on a hunting jaunt at Potomac Beach, Va.

Hardly had the big train's action become known before he received many expressions of regret from friends here, along with numerous tentative business offers which would keep him in baseball.

Before leaving for the hunting trip, Walter said he had nothing immediate in view. He will examine the various propositions before him, but hunting alone will take his time until Tuesday.

When the pitching ace returns to his home at Alta Vista, Md., he is expected to get in touch with Paul Block, owner of the Newark, N.J., club of the International League, who hopes to sign Johnson as manager of the club.

Walter will be a free agent as soon as all American League clubs waive on him. It is not expected that any club will hinder his wish to retire from the big league mound, as expressed by Clark Griffith, president of the Washington club.

HEY FANNY, LOOK AT JUNIOR! LOOK AT THE FUTURE! HE'S LEARNED THE PUTTING GREEN POSE ALREADY!

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Cecil handicapper, mile and one furlong, feature yesterday's card at Laurel, was carried off by Crusader, with Earl Sande in the saddle. Sir Harry finished second and Dolan third. There were only three starters. Sande got Crusader away first and he stayed there all the way, winning by a length over Sir Harry. Crusader carried top weight of 126 pounds and covered the sloppy going in 1:53 2-5.

The Bringer handicap, feature at Latonia, went to Rolled Stocking, which beat Fresco by a length. Rothornel was third. Rolled Stocking took the lead at the half-mile turn and was never headed. The winner paid $15.

The Aknusti stable's Premier, odds-on favorite, simply smothered his field in winning the Gowanus claiming stakes at Jamaica. Premier was a 7 to 10 favorite. At one stage of the race Clearence ran along with him, but could not hold out and quit at the top of the stretch. Premier won by five lengths over Easy Money, which was eight lengths ahead of Clearence. The race was worth $2,825. The mile and one-sixteenth was run in 1:48 3-5.

Miss Meise won the fourth race at Arlington, a mile and one-sixteenth for three-year-olds and up. Indiana ran second and Grand Dad third. The winner's time was 1:47.

The clubs will bring their season to a close when they hold banquets for their players in the near future.

Local Riders Win Medals in Harley Motorcycle Derby

Newspapermen's Rides Here in July Result in Awards of Two Gold Medals

Both Victoria entrants in the Harley-Davidson Second Annual Newspapermen's Derby this year were successful in gaining gold medals, according to word just received by Dick Shanks, the local dealer.

The contest, which was to see which rider could go the farthest on a Harley-Davidson single motorcycle on a quarter of a mile track, was run in July on the Olympic Highway to Sidney. Similar contests were held by newspapermen all over the world and the successful ones were announced.

George R. Skauget of The Tacoma Times was awarded the championship and $100 in cash. Skauget made the remarkable distance of 88.3 miles on one quart of gasoline or 233.2 miles to the gallon.

LOCAL RIDERS

The local riders were Cyril Connor, representing The Daily Colonist, and Leslie Fox of The Times. The former made 32 miles on a quart and the latter 24.8 miles, both being among the fifty riders who were awarded gold medals.

The Victoria Derby, which was held under the supervision and judging of Chief of Police Fry, Motorcycle Officer Percy Richards and Corporal C. Clarke of the Victoria Police, was run on a course from Cloverdale Avenue to Sidney and return. Both competitors were well on the return trip before their tanks ran out of gas, one reaching Hamlettery Lakeside and the other Lake Hill.

Australia and South Africa were both well represented among the winners, two Cape Town riders and riders from Melbourne and Perth securing medals and cash prizes.

Amateur Baseballers Wind-up Season After Best Year on Record

At a meeting held last night at the Y.M.C.A. with President Matt Hunter presiding, the Victoria Amateur Baseball League wound up its most successful season both on the field and financially. The largest bank balance in the history of the local league was divided up with all the club managers.

The United Commercial Travelers, Eagles and Sons of Canada, all stated they would most likely compete again next year.

It is anticipated that the club will enter two teams in the Capital City and District Bowling League.

BOLSTER WEAK SPOTS

Bush in angling with several clubs that have such trading material. Hughey Critz is the player most desired by Bush. It is understood Pittsburgh has offered Cuyler to the Cincinnati club for First Baseman Walter Pipp and Second Baseman Hughey Critz.

Last Spring, Critz held out for more money. The trouble wasn't adjusted until after the opening of the season and when Critz reported, he was in far from playing condition. He early suffered a "charley horse," as well as other injuries that kept him out of the line-up.

His absence from the game was one of the reasons for the terrible start made by the Reds. It would be conservative to say that Critz's failure to play his game cost the Reds at least $100,000 at the gate because of the club's failure to be in the first division. It is possible that Critz's status with the club owner and manager may be very much like that of Cuyler.

Regardless, there is a deal on the table for an exchange of Cuyler for Critz and Pipp, which would give Pittsburgh desired strength at two weak spots. Its consummation is entirely up to the Cincinnati club.

Incidentally, another deal hinted between the two clubs is an exchange of Catcher Earl Smith of the Pirates for "Bubbles" Hargrave, of the Reds.

Moore Marvels at Quick Way in Which He Made His Money

Star Pitcher of Yankees Did Not Know it Could Be Made So Rapidly

Boost in Salary and World's Series Slice Causes Veteran Hurler to Ponder

By BILLY EVANS

This has been a big year for Pitcher Willy Moore, of the New York Yankees, who just a year ago at this time was finishing a very successful year in the South Atlantic League. He had won thirty games and lost only four.

Despite his remarkable record, none of the major league scouts fancied he had a chance to make the grade in the American or National Leagues. It seemed as if his great year in the minors would be wasted until the New York Yankees decided that a pitcher with so remarkable a record must have something. He was bought for a very nominal sum.

"He had a great year in the minors but not a single scout turned in a favorable report," was the comment of Manager Miller Huggins during Spring training.

Yet Willy Moore, thirty years old, with nineteen games in the American League last season and saved probably fifteen others to make the most remarkable record ever made by a first year man.

CONSTANTLY IN RESERVE
Now for the very pleasant part of his big season that Moore has enjoyed as a member of the Yankees' pitching staff.

In the Little League, Moore was paid, so I understand, $2,400 a year, a rather healthy figure for that league. His rights in baseball called for the Yankees to pay him $3,000. Moore was delighted to sign such a contract.

Moore played a major role in the winning of the pennant by the Yankees. The greatest weapon a manager can have is a relief pitcher capable of meeting the emergency. Moore—early proved that he could.

With Moore in constant reserve, a glut of punishment, Miller Huggins has been able to call on him, nibble that it was the exception for one of the veteran pitchers to act in a relief role. That helped.

GOT SALARY BOOST
Now for the part that has made a big hit with Moore. He has received a $3,000 contract and made him out a new one calling for $10,000. He well deserved it.

If the story is true, and I have every reason to believe it is, Moore stands out as one of the few pitchers to receive such a substantial offer, with the race practically over.

The Yankees' share of the world series was nearly $6,000, so that Moore received something like $16,000 for one year's work, about seven times what he earned in the minors. "I never thought it was possible for one man to make so much money in such a time," is the way Moore talks about it.

No wonder the Yankees have a most kindly feeling for Willy Moore. The same kindly feeling exists from club house boy to president.

COMEDY STARS IN PLAYHOUSE STAGE PLAY THIS WEEK

Harold Bechtel and Will Marshall are two tramps in the big revue, "Hits and Bits from Everywhere," the stage attraction at the Playhouse this week. They both have several opportunities to display their talents in this gorgeous melange of musical comedy.

It takes women to devise the spiciest, most intimate and most human domestic comedy—for fiction, stage or screen! That seems to be a feminine field, like pie-making. "Lonesome Ladies," a first National comedy-drama of marital difficulties and romance, at the Playhouse Theatre, was written by Lenore Coffee, famous film writer, and adapted and dramatized by the even more celebrated screen authoress, Winifred Dunn.

That, as well as the able work of a fine cast headed by Lewis Stone and Anna Q. Nilsson, accounts for the popularity of the Playhouse offering with both men and women. Yielding to this provoked Dr. Lugu, who attacked him. When Premier Bratiana learned of the verdict, he remarked laughingly, "Our next Cabinet Council will have to be held in the Minister's cell." It is the first known case in Roumania where a Cabinet member has been sentenced to jail.

WESTERN ROMANCE STARS MONTE BLUE AS POPULAR HERO

Monte Blue in "The Brute" the Warner Brothers' production now at the Columbia Theatre is in a striking role. It is a rushing rattling melodrama of the days when the West was the wild and woolly—but it is a real picture of the west and through it runs a love story of tremendous strength and human appeal. Monte Blue has never been cast in a part more suited to his vigorous personality. Thrills, suspense, uproarious comedy, and fighting love—in one of the greatest Westerns ever filmed, are plentiful in "The Brute."

OPERA SINGER IS COMEDIAN ACTING IN CHAPLIN PLAY

Henry Bergman who plays the role of Hank Curtis in Charlie Chaplin's comedy, "The Gold Rush," a United Artists Corporation production, now playing at the Coliseum Theatre, is a native son of California, having been born in San Francisco. At the early age of two, his parents returned to Germany where Henry grew up and was educated.

In 1883 he returned to America, a member of New York's Metropolitan Grand Opera Company. A tenor of note, he remained three seasons with this famous organization, followed by three seasons in English grand opera. For nine years, Bergman toured with the Augustin Daly Musical Comedy Company, and appeared in such well-known old favorites as "The Runaway Girl," "San Toy," "The Country Girl," "Clingens," "He also played in the Ziegfeld Follies for three seasons, and with Blanche Ring in "The Yankee Girl."

His first appearance in pictures was with Pathe in New York. Later he came to Hollywood and joined Charlie Chaplin's Company, since then having appeared in all of Charlie's comedies for the last ten years. Also Thomas Meighan is the leading man at the Coliseum Theatre in his latest Paramount drama "We're All Gamblers."

Adapted from the Sidney Howard stage success "Lucky Sam McCarter" by Hope Loring and directed by James Cruze, the picture shapes up as an admirable screen material. "Tom appears as an East Side wail who grows up as a professional prize fighter. An automobile accident prevents his continuing in the ring and he turns to his only remaining talent—music. Playing a piano in a night club, his fame grows by leaps and bounds. A rich society woman falls in love with him. His adopted brother is attracted to her. Another man, an idle bounder, is killed and all three are accused of the crime. Then—But see "We're All Gamblers!" The star of "The New Klondike," "The Miracle Man," "Homeward Bound," "Tin Gods" and "The Canadian" has never had a finer vehicle. Marietta Milner is featured.

LIKED SPEED AND GOT IT WHEN SHE MADE THIS FILM

Mary Brian has satisfied a secret ambition, appearing defiantly, with fifty people looking on. It was an ambition which began developing two years ago when she learned to drive a motor car. From the time she first took the wheel her instructor warned her not to do more than fifteen miles an hour in city streets.

Recently she went on location with Richard Dix's company making "Man Power" for Paramount. Director Clarence Badger took her and began this way: "Now Mary, I hate to ask you to do this, but we want you to drive that high-powered roadster along this road fast enough to race the freight train on which our cameras will be located."

"How fast do you think that will be?" she inquired with a great show of calm. "About sixty miles an hour." Then Mary walked away to give three silent cheers. It was a good race, but the driver never had a chance. "Man Power" is now at the Capitol Theatre. In it, Miss Brian appears as the daughter of the president of a tractor company. Dix gets a job with her father and attempts to prove his knowledge of machinery. At first, his efforts are laughable but later on—action and thrills come along at the rate of a mile a minute.

Among the fine attractions on the Capitol stage this week are Blandford and Pharis, the celebrated dancing team. Maxim Brody, the celebrated Russian tenor, in song selections, and Lorraine Fraser, the vest pocket soprano. The Capitol Concert Orchestra is also to be featured in a tuneful musical programme for the picture attractions.

MIGHTY DRAMA OF JUNGLE LIFE HAS THRILLS IN PLenty

With the formal opening of "Chang" at the Dominion Theatre on Monday night the public was given the opportunity of seeing one of the finest pictures ever made; certainly the most perfect of its type. The New York Evening Review says: "Women shrieked their excitement, men gasped their amazement, and at the end of the soft note, the only note, of the audible sound; then the most spontaneous outburst of applause that this critic has ever witnessed in a movie house broke out and lasted for some time. I call it the most thrilling because it is real, natural, honest drama. To say that this is the screen classic of the melodrama is to say one is prepared to do." The Dominion feature is probably one of the most amazing spectacles to appear on the local screen. It is a tale of jungle life, mystery and romance among the native people of the Far East.

EARL CARROLL SOON TO LEAVE PRISON

Parole Ordered For New York Theatrical Man Held at Atlanta, Ga.

Washington, Oct. 19.—Earl Carroll, New York theatrical producer, will be released from the Atlanta penitentiary within the next few days. The recommendation of the parole board for his release was approved late yesterday by Attorney-General Sargent and papers were forwarded immediately to the warden of the penitentiary directing him to liberate the prisoner. Carroll began serving a sentence of a year last June for perjury in connection with his famous bathtub party on the stage of his New York theatre. In addition to the sentence he was fined $2,000.

He was described in the parole application as a model prisoner, with a marked improvement in health after his collapse on his way to the prison, when he was removed from the train and kept for some time in a Greenville, S.C., hospital.

The conditions under which Carroll was granted the parole include, one that during the term of his parole he is not to frequent saloons or other places where intoxicating liquors are sold or furnished, and that he will not drink intoxicating beverages.

TO KEEP THE LAW Carroll also will be required to abstain during the time of his parole from associating with persons of bad reputation, and to conduct himself honorably and work diligently and honestly for himself and his employer, and to avoid "violating the law."

On February 22, 1926, Carroll gave a party in his theatre in New York and newspaper accounts said a feature of the entertainment was the serving of drinks by Miss Joyce Hawley, a show girl, from a bathtub, in which she sat. Before two federal grand juries, Carroll denied anyone had occupied the tub, but his testimony was refuted by Miss Hawley herself.

The party was given shortly after Countess Cathcart had gained admission to this country after being detained at Ellis Island on a charge of moral turpitude. Carroll was then planning to produce her play, "Ashes of Love," and she was one of the principal guests at the party. Some of the reported guests were Irving Cobb, Harry Tabor and Al Johnson, who denied this at the trial.

ONE POLICE WILL PREVENT CROW ACT

Kiwanis Concert King Turns Deaf Ear to All Other Objectors

Prepared to Submit to Any Investigation Asked For, He Says

"Only an objection from Chief of Police John Fry will lead us to consider for one moment the cancellation of the forty black crow act to be given November 21, 22 and 23 in Victoria," Kiwanians said to-day in answer to objections that a bird act comes under the ban for cruelty to an even great extent than animal acts.

"We have made arrangements to go ahead with the show. We have gone to considerable expense. The crows are billed to appear here as far as the Kiwanis Club is concerned they will appear. Even though Chief Fry should forbid it at the instance of bird and animal lovers, we would be inclined to appeal his ruling," they say.

"As previously stated no barbarous methods are used to teach the performing crows. Their talents have been developed along human lines. They are clever, intelligent, actors, entertainers and comedians, because their natural gifts, which they could not develop in their wild state, have been developed under the masterly direction of a talented showman.

"People are too prone to rush into prejudiced objections with only half the facts in their possession," Kiwanians said with emphasis. "It is a pity they did not call for the investigation first before they threatened the success of the show with unjustifiable complaints. In a few days we will be in a position to publish full details of the performance which we believe will sweep all criticism aside."

"If," they added, "in face of these details there remains any objection to the enjoyment of the forty black crows of their work we will be prepared to submit them to the most searching investigation before placing them before the spotlight."

HALF HOLIDAY TEST MADE IN ROYAL CITY

Proprietor of Book Store in New Westminster is Fined $10 by Magistrate

New Westminster, Oct. 19.—The position of the Weekly Half-Holiday Act as applied to the retail trade in New Westminster, was tested in police court yesterday when Allan C. Nixon, Columbia Street, was fined $10 by Magistrate H. L. Edmonds. The charge of keeping open the Nixon book store after the noon of Wednesday, September 28, in violation of the act, was laid by W. G. McQuarrie, city solicitor, upon information laid by Police George Bradshaw and Sergeant Peter Bruce.

Police witnesses stated that when they visited the store on the afternoon in question Mr. Nixon said he was keeping the premises open on the advice of the secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association. He asserted, they said, he had as much right to conduct business as had the British Columbia Electric Railway Company, newstand or the drugstore, which were selling the same class of goods as he was.

Evidence in connection with a referendum on the act taken in 1917 was given by W. A. Duncan, city clerk of that period. R. A. Braden, conducting the defence, declared the legal status of the weekly half-holiday had not been proved satisfactory. He contended a vote necessary at the time of the referendum had not been taken, and he asked for dismissal of the case on these grounds.

Canadian Farm Fair in November

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—"It's going to be a real jubilee," stated Hon. W. R. Motherwell, Minister of Agriculture, to-day, referring to Canada's Agricultural Jubilee which is to be celebrated next month.

The Minister stated he was much encouraged at the recognition given by the provinces to the great basic industry of the country in that they would all participate in the coming celebration, seven of them with non-competitive displays, and all of them with livestock and other branches which would enter the competitive lists.

"Every bit of space at our disposal will be filled," Mr. Motherwell said. Most interesting among the exhibits in the celebration, which will be held in connection with the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair at Toronto, November 16 to November 24, will be the showing of apples from Ontario, Quebec and New Brunswick.

M.P.'s to Vote On Prairie Resources

Winnipeg, Oct. 19.—"There is going to be a showdown on this natural resources question at the next session of Parliament," declared Hon. J. W. Edwards, M.P. for Prince-Albert, Ontario, speaking at a public meeting here last night.

"It is going to be settled, we hope, all here, within a year and a half," he added.

AIR LEAGUE CAMPAIGN Winnipeg, Oct. 19.—"Enterprising citizens of other countries are busy making a survey of possibilities of establishing aerial transport in Canada, and unless Canadians want this to be done for them by others and with foreign capital, they must act promptly and do it themselves," declared Major-General J. H. Macbride, former chief of staff of the Canadian military forces, in an address on "Canadian Aviation" before the Winnipeg Canadian Club yesterday. He strongly advocated the formation of a Canadian air league.

TALENTED CANADIANS WILL GIVE RECITAL

Eleanor Agnew and Margaret Wilson to Play in Victoria

Considerable attention has already been attracted to the forthcoming joint violin recital to be given by the gifted young Canadian violinists, Eleanor Agnew and Margaret Wilson. Both are superlatively talented players, and both play with that maturity of judgment that characterizes all their work. Their programme, too, is of the most satisfying order, and includes not only the compositions of the great masters, who knew so well how to write for "strings," but there are many favorite numbers of the modern composer. The two players are coming to the coast for a short tour, and arrangements have been made for their appearance here next week. The recital will be given in the auditorium of the Centennial Church, Gorge Road, and will commence at 8.15 o'clock. All tickets are now at Fletcher Bros., and the special rates for music students, schools, colleges, etc., should bring out an especially large number of young people.

GILES IS PREPARING FOR PACIFIC FLIGHT

British Aviator Repairing Plane For California-Australia Voyage

Elko, Nevada, Oct. 19.—P. A. Giles, British aviator who crashed at the airport here Monday while en route to San Francisco, is a Golden-Australian flight, told the Associated Press to-day he hoped to reassemble his plane and hop off for Honolulu within fourteen days.

Giles' plane is being forwarded to San Francisco to-day, he himself making the trip there as a passenger in an air mail plane scheduled to arrive at 4.30 p.m. Giles said he had ordered a new wing for his plane from the Detroit factory, and that the wing was being rushed west.

"All the bugs are out of the ship, and I am confident of success," said Giles. "I hope to end the flight successfully, and hope it may be of some commercial value to Fiji, Australia and New Zealand, countries far less educated in aeronautics than America."

"The flight may seem spectacular, but I hope it will stimulate public interest in the colonies of my own country."

"I wish to pay a tribute to my sporting backer, W. H. Rosewarne of Detroit. Our plane, the Hess Bluebird biplane Wanda, Detroit's good friend, has met much ill-luck, but success depends upon trials, and these we have had."

JEWELRY SALESMAN ROBBED BY THUGS

Salt Lake City, Oct. 19.—Six automobile bandits yesterday kidnapped a jewelry salesman on one of Main Street's busiest corners there, carried him to the hills, robbed him of $40,000 in jewelry—then refused to take his pocket-book containing $120 because it was his personal property.

W. C. E. Brown, a representative of the Fisher Importing Company, Inc., of New York, had just bent over to drink from a street drinking fountain when three hold-up men walked up beside him. With a cheery "Hello, Brownie," when did you come to town?" they ushered him into their car along with two handbags and a brief case full of gems and watches. In company with three men already in the car they sped into a canyon east of the city and trusted Brown to a post on a toboggan slide. Brown was rescued three hours later by riflemen practicing for a deer-hunting trip.

The two handbags containing $500 worth of inexpensive watches were recovered by deputy sheriffs late yesterday, where they had been thrown by the bandits within seventy-five yards of where they had left Brown.

All roads in this vicinity are being patrolled and it is believed the robbers are still hiding in the hills near here.

"I saw an ad. in your paper calling attention to the valuable but useless dollars that are usually to be found in people's attics in the form of old stoves, bicycles, outgrown guns, roller skates, etc. Of course my attic was no exception, so as I needed a little ready cash I tried your plan of running a little ad. Last Minute News on Stocks and Financial Affairs

Wall Street Journal's Review of To-day's Stock Market Over B.C. Bond Corporation's Direct Wall Street Lease Wire to the Victoria Times

New York, Oct. 19.—The evening edition of The Wall Street Journal says: Stocks broke badly to-day after displaying strength in the early dealings.

President Coolidge's constructive outline of general business conditions brought considerable buying from all parts of the country.

Nothing like the support which had been afforded these leaders through the summer months was in evidence, suggesting that the bull forces were not so confident regarding the outlook as they had been during the earlier stages of the year.

Substantial declines in the principal rails gave rise to reports that some unfavorable news was coming from Washington. These rumors were to the effect that the Interstate Commerce Commission was about to issue adverse rulings on various merger applications. It was argued that there was little likelihood of the Interstate Commerce Commission with Erie and Perre Marquette being approved. While the holding company plan could be put through without this sanction, most authorities were inclined to the belief that it would not stand the test of the Supreme Court.

Dodge preferred had a weak spell, declining to new low ground for the year. The stock's steady decline has aroused fears regarding safety of the 77 dividend rate. Bear attacks based on the theory that payment would be cut or passed have met no real opposition.

Comment was heard in speculative quarters regarding a novel method employed by a pool in Fiat Tire to cover up its buying operations. It was said that accumulation had been conducted through Holland Banking firms to cover the actual operations on this side.

Wheat Pool Makes Final Payment of $19,000,000

Winnipeg, Oct. 19.—A final payment of more than $19,000,000 on the 1926 crop of wheat was announced to-day by A. J. McPhail, president of the Canadian wheat pool.

Of the amount, the Saskatchewan pool members receive $12,929,207. Alberta members $4,198,587 and Manitoba $2,085,575.

The total payment made by the Central Selling Agency to the three provincial pools represents the net balance after deducting all marketing costs incurred by the Alberta Selling Agency, such as storage, interest charges and administrative expenses from the proceeds of the 1926 crop.

As in previous years, the spreads between grades have been adjusted in the final payments which reflect the actual price secured for the various grades. The final payments make the total price on the principal grades as follows:

No. 1 Northern $1.42, No. 1 Durum $1.45, No. 2 Northern $1.37, No. 3 Northern $1.31, No. 4 $1.21, No. 5 $1.09, No. 6 97¢.

The distribution of more than $19,000,000 brings the grand total paid to the pools since the Alberta pool was formed in 1923 to more than $674,000,000.

Bulls, Bears Stage Battle in Silverado

Bulls and bears staged a lively battle on the floor of the Victoria Stock Exchange to-day as they fought over silver stock.

After 4,200 shares had been churned up in the market, during which the price of the bulls had succeeded in forcing the price from a start of 50 up to 60, they succeeded in closing the market higher. After the heavy sell-off, the price of the bears came to its support to-day in an effort to hold the market. Trading has been with a tendency to move up with the market.

George Copper continued around 250 here to-day, with 1,150 shares changing hands at that price. It sold down to 28 here on development work there is forced ahead. A message from William Beaudry, R. TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKETS

Winnipeg, Oct. 19.—Weather throughout Western Canada continues fine and clear with increasing general and resultant heavy increase in country marketings. Export business is slow at Winnipeg. The foreign buyer appears to be taking wheat from other countries in preference to Canadian and looks as if they will continue to do so until Winnipeg prices come more in line with other markets.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—The Journal of Commerce to-day says: "Action of the market in Chicago and Winnipeg is taken as reflecting the adjustment of values in wheat to a lower level. Careful students of the world's situation fail to see anything but a warrant permanent improvement in the immediate future. Despite the fact that prices are down to low level of the season, American markets have taken care of a vast amount of wheat for the large export demand."

"Corn traders who thought they saw evidence of the market having turned for the better on Monday sold out yesterday their lines taken on the break of the previous day. The new wheat was bought at 3½ cents and sold at 4½ cents, which is attributed to the elevator interest in selling corn moderately and purchases are being hedged by sales of futures."

There were reports yesterday of corn prices in the Southwest being close to an export basis."

By Branson, Brown & Co. Limited
Winnipeg, Oct. 19.—Wheat: The wheat market opened from ¼ to 1½ higher this morning, based on cables, which were stronger than yesterday following our export decline of almost five cents during the October month. The bulge, however, was not held, the two nearby months getting about half cent and the deferred close under the close of the month. From these declines there were a few rallies, but they were only feeble and were difficult to hold. There appeared to be plenty of wheat in the market of the day, except on the extreme side.

The buying was largely by shorts who were taking profits; but there was a little buying by seaboard houses and toward estimates export sales at 500-1000 bushels, the larger part being Manitoba and being cleared from Vancouver. Generally speaking, export business is slow and buyers are taking wheat from other countries in preference to Canada, and it looks as if they will continue to do so until our futures prices get more in line with other markets.

The BLUE CAR MYSTERY

By NATALIE SUMNER LINCOLN

CHAPTER I

Black, impenetrable darkness. Darkness hung like a pall over the contents of the room. The utter stillness was broken by the musical chiming of a clock—"One—Two—Three—"

then again silence reigned. From one of the deep window alcoves a shadow detached itself from the shadows and crept forward across the room.

The man's progress was slow. His feet did not move from the soft thick carpet as they slid along and his fingers tingled with excitement, engendered by contact with the heavy nap. His forehead was damp with perspiration. Was that a faint noise behind him?

The man became a motionless shadow again. He felt the back of his neck contract; by sheer force of will power alone he held himself rigidly erect; he dared not lose his sense of direction.
Guided by the chiming of the clock he had located the chimney piece—and what he had come to find lay somewhere before it.

Scarcely daring to breathe he resumed his steady progress forward.
God! He had not realized the size of the room. Suddenly he paused and dropped to his knees. He held the position for fully ten seconds, listening intently; the almost inaudible ticking of the clock was the only sound to reach his ears. Gathering courage from the stillness, he got on all fours and slid his hands this way and that along the floor. He had advanced a yard or more when his outflung hand touched human flesh. At its cold contact, he drew in his breath sharply, with a slight hissing noise, and his muscles arched themselves with ecstatic endurance. He had touched a man and after a second's appreciable pause, he pushed forward like some four-footed animal seeking its prey.

As he reached to the right his fingers closed over an extended hand.
A soft, slender hand. The blood drained from his heart, his knees crumpled under him and he lay extended on the floor. He had touched one hand on his left a brief minute before—and now to find this on his right!—God!
there were two in the room!—where there had been but one!

Gathering himself together by supreme effort, the man slid forward a few inches and this time his groping fingers found what he sought. Clutching the glove in an iron grip, he wormed his way down the room to the shelter of the alcove. The window swung open on oiled hinges and, as noiselessly as he had come, he regained the garden. He paused at the gate and made certain that the street was empty, then stepped outside.

Unhappily he walked up the sidewalk, quelling his insane impulse to run. He had covered a block without realizing it, his eyes half-blinded by the lightly falling snow whipped about by the cold wind, when he spied his car in the distance. If he only dared quicken his pace!

He was panting when he reached the car and once inside he sank back against the upholstered seat to recover his breath. As he leaned down a moment later to locate the transmission lock, he found the key in it.
An hysterical chime escaped him; in his confused state of mind he had forgotten to lock the car!

It took some seconds to start the engine and the gear shifts stuck from the cold, but it was with a sense of exaltation that he drew on his gloves before releasing the clutch and slowly starting up the street. His way took him up unfrequented streets, inadequately lighted as are most of the thoroughfares of Washington, the nation's capital. He had just swung into Wyoming Avenue from Nineteenth Street when a loud shout reached him.

"Hey, turn on your lights!"
"Thanks!" The answering cry was involuntary and the sound of his own voice stilled the thumping of his heart and steadied his nerves. As he turned on the cowl lights, he also switched on the small dash lamp and glanced hastily at the speedometer. Suppose he had been arrested for speeding?

He slowed up to cross Connecticut Avenue; another turn and he was driving down a narrow alley. He swung the car into his garage with practiced skill, and, getting out, closed the two large doors which gave admittance to it.

The brick garage, which was large enough to accommodate two cars, was also electrically lighted and the man turned on the switch. Under the glare of the arc light he inspected himself before an old mirror which was stored in one corner on top of several small trunks.

The man brushed some dust off his coat, opened it and carefully scanned his evening attire, except that his white tie was awry and his collar wilted, his appearance would pass muster at any entertainment, formal or otherwise. He was well over six feet, with shoulders broad in proportion,
and what the dandies termed "a presentable pudge."

As the man turned away from the mirror and put up his hand to switch off the swinging electric light his eyes fell on the car.

His car? Yes, surely, but—he stood with arm upraised for fully a minute, his eyes devouring the coupe. His make of car, his type of car, but with a difference, his was a 1924 model, while this—this was the new model for 1925.

The man released the electric light and walked slowly around the car, a gleam of interest in his eyes. The car at the back he paused, transfixed—then hurried to the front. The car was without license plates either back or front.

The man leaned limply against the wall of the garage and his numb fingers sought a half-filled flask in his hip pocket. As he drained it, a long, horrible sentence flashed through his reeling senses: Whom the Gods would destroy, they first make mad!

A moment later the garage was plunged in darkness.

CHAPTER II

Patrick Sullivan's eyebrows met in a frown at the sight of his wife carrying a breakfast tray down the back stairs. Without a word he took it from her and led the way into the pantry.

"Bad cess to it! There's no coffee left," he muttered, examining the pot.
"Sure, it's drunk very dry."

"And barely touched his breakfast," chimed in his wife, a troubled look on her comely face. "I greatly fear—"

"Pouf! There's nothing to fear," the young master's as hard as nails, he grumbled her excellent spouse. "But the hours he's keepin'!" not to say the company—"He shook his gray hair and been raisin' unduly, as the bedroom door swung further inward.

"Who is it?" asked Ned Terry,
struggling with a refractory collar button.

"She said as how you wouldn't remember her, and she'd rather spake to ye herself," replied Sullivan. "Twas no voice I ever heard before," and he stepped back from the doorway to allow Terry to cross the hall and enter the library.

It was a large room, extending across the entire front of the house, and bookshelves lined the walls, except for a space allotted the windows and a huge stone chimney. In its furnishings the library reflected its owner's excellent taste and affection for good literature. Especially in the dull glare of a January day, with a wood fire burning on the hearth, it appeared a most delightful spot in which to loiter and relax, at least such was Terry's thought as he dropped into an armchair next to the telephone cabinet.

"Hello!" he called cheerfully through the mouth-piece. "This is Mr. Terry.
What is it?"

"Mr. Terry? Oh, thank God!" It was unmistakably a woman's cultivated voice speaking, and a very charming one, but there was a note of terror in the soft modulated tones. "I must see you instantly."

"Surely," agreed Terry, and the heartiness of his response carried conviction. "Who is speaking, please?"

"Harriet Whitney. We have not met for years. I am the niece of Commodore James Whitney. I am telephoning from Uncle Jim's," her voice faltered.
"He's—he's dead."

"Great heavens!" Terry sat bolt upright. "My dear madam—"

"I can't give you details now, but for God's sake hurry—"

"I will." The promise was clearly spoken, and the receiver clicked back instantly on its hook, but it was fully five minutes before Terry replaced the telephone instrument in its cabinet and rose from his chair. He found Sullivan in his bedroom awaiting his return.

Sullivan, who supplemented his duties as caretaker, by valeting Terry,

"The Stars Inclined, But Do Not Compel" (Copyright)

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1927

Again unfavorable planetary aspects rule through the busy hours of the day, according to the readings of astrology.

Early in the morning heads of business organizations should benefit by influences making for smooth mechanical operation.

There is a way passably promising for all who seek employment in the first hours of the busy day.

Specially trained men and women should benefit from this direction of the stars, which is auspicious for experiments.

Railroads are subject to fairly fortunate conditions and again an immense volume of winter travel is forecast.

Infant Care

Mothers, you can't start too early to establish a child's serene and tranquil disposition. Even an infant can have a happy, fretless state of uninterrupted health. What will help do this? A simple, purely vegetable product as old as you are: plain Castoria.

A few drops of Castoria will settle all uneasiness in a jiffy. Will dispel colic or ward off constipation; and just as surely check diarrhoea.

In real sickness, call a physician. But many physicians urge only Castoria for those little childish disorders that need nothing more. You need never be afraid to give pure Castoria. It is safe and perfectly harmless, for it contains no purgative, no opiates, no dose of any kind. At least, this is true of the genuine Fletcher's Castoria—and that is the kind doctors tell you always to buy.

Fletcher's Castoria is fine for every child. All children love to take it. Delicious tasting, and as good as it tastes.

Metchosin

Metchosin, Oct. 18.—A special meeting of sheepmen will be held in the Metchosin Hall on Tuesday, October 25, at 8.30, under the auspices of the Metchosin local branch of the British Columbia Wool Growers' Association, to which all sheep owners and breeders in the district are urged to attend. Measures will be discussed for protecting sheep from the menace of hunters who are trawling through the woods with their dogs, and also from the ravages of wild animals, which have been the cause of heavy losses among the sheep in the district within the past few weeks. About fifty sheep are reported to have been lost or destroyed from among the various sheep owners, but it is not known from what particular source the losses occurred, though it is assumed that bears or cougars are chiefly responsible.

At the next regular monthly meeting of the Metchosin Women's Institute Mrs. J. D. Gordon, of Victoria, will speak on "Institute Policies," and at this meeting final arrangements will be reported for the pioneer entertainment, which is to be held under the auspices of the institute on Wednesday, November 26, when most of the pioneers of the district will gather together and invitations will also be extended to old-time pioneers of the neighboring districts and Victoria.

Mrs. A. C. McVicker was again successful in carrying off prizes at the recent dog show in Victoria with her Boston bull females, both in the puppy bitches class and open bitches class.

STOMACH TROUBLE CAUSED AGONY

Mr. Henry Senecal, Despardine St., Montreal, knows what it is to be tortured with Stomach Trouble. "For the past year," he writes, "I have suffered agonies. Indigestion made me deathly sick, and the pains were hard to bear. I had dizzy spells and racing headaches; sleep was broken; and I was tired all the time. I have lost many a day's work on account of my condition, and I could have saved all this suffering and loss of time had I taken Tanlac in the beginning. For after my fifth bottle of Tanlac, I am now in the best of health—do anything—sleep well—do a big day's work and have gained nine pounds in the past two months. I gladly recommend Tanlac to anyone." If you are bothered with Stomach Trouble, Indigestion, Gas, Pain after eating, get Tanlac to-day. Let it help you as it helped Mr. Senecal. Why not let Tanlac do for you what it did for this sufferer and for thousands of others? It is marvelous in the way it corrects the "most obstinate digestive troubles"—relieves gas, pains in the stomach and bowels—restores appetite, vigor and sound sleep. Tanlac is made of roots, barks and herbs—nature's own medicine—for the sick. The cost is less than 2 cents a dose. Get a bottle from your druggist to-day. Your money back if it doesn't help you.

Energy, good health and fine spirits follow proper digestion and elimination. To keep poisons from entering the system there must be complete and regular elimination of waste.

Tillson's natural Bran sets the digestive tract in proper motion. It exercises the bowel muscles and makes them strong. It supplies the roughage which nature requires as part of mankind's daily food.

Delicious bran muffins, gems or cookies, take the place of medicine. The family will be delighted with them. Unpleasant laxatives and habit-forming drugs may be thrown away.

Tillson's natural Bran is simply the coat of the wheat grain, sterilized and packed in dustproof cartons.

AGame of Life and Death for Stolen French Air Plans

In the town of Lugano, Switzerland, two interned French officers had prepared diagrams of an aeroplane that they believed would give France and her allies mastery of the air. Mysteriously these had disappeared from their hiding-place behind a picture frame, and as mysteriously reappeared. When the officers told their story to Charles Lucietto, famous French operative, his suspicion was fastened upon Irma Staub, declared by him to be "the most dangerous spy of modern times," and the mysterious Count Tirlumont.

Health Lecture

By Dr. Barton

Dr. A. F. Barton, the well-known biologist will lecture in the New Thought Temple, 935 Pandora Avenue, to-night, at 8 o'clock. The subject he will speak on will be "Building a Healthy Body."

"There seems to be much confusion in the minds of the laymen about how diet cures disease," says Dr. Barton. "Cures are reported by those who have taken the buttermilk diet or the straight milk diet. Others report cures from taking the raw food diet, while the vegetarians claim that leaving meat out of the dietary will cure any disease that the flesh is heir to. Dietitians themselves differ in their opinions as to what foods cause disease and consequently cannot agree on specific diet cures. The fact does remain however that those who are sick recover rapidly while they are using a restriction in diet, but this is simply because the system is more able to adjust itself on a plain diet. Diet treatment succeeds only in so far as it gives nature a better chance to bring about a readjustment to the normal. The essential point to remember when attempting to cure by food is not to try to build up the body by food to resist disease, but to take away those foods and wrong combination of foods that have been interfering with health. No single article of food in itself can be said to cause any specific disorder. You do not get bow-legged from eating frog's legs, neither do you have fallen arches from too liberal consumption of roast duck."

During the lecture Dr. Barton will demonstrate his original breathing and vibrating exercises as well as showing by means of the diagnosis from the eyes, why there are certain types that cannot drink milk while others thrive on it. The lecture is free to the public.
